All that we see or seem;
is but a dream within a dream.
Edgar Allen Poe

1971 OPTIMIST

Middletown High School

Middletown, Ohio

Volume LIX

Standing here,
On the threshold of a dream
I see life,
joy,
love within my grasp.
Yet, if I reach out
to touch them;
They vanish in the mist.
I know why they disappear:
A dream cannot be grasped.
A dream must become reality
before it is to be enjoyed.

Let the dream serve only as
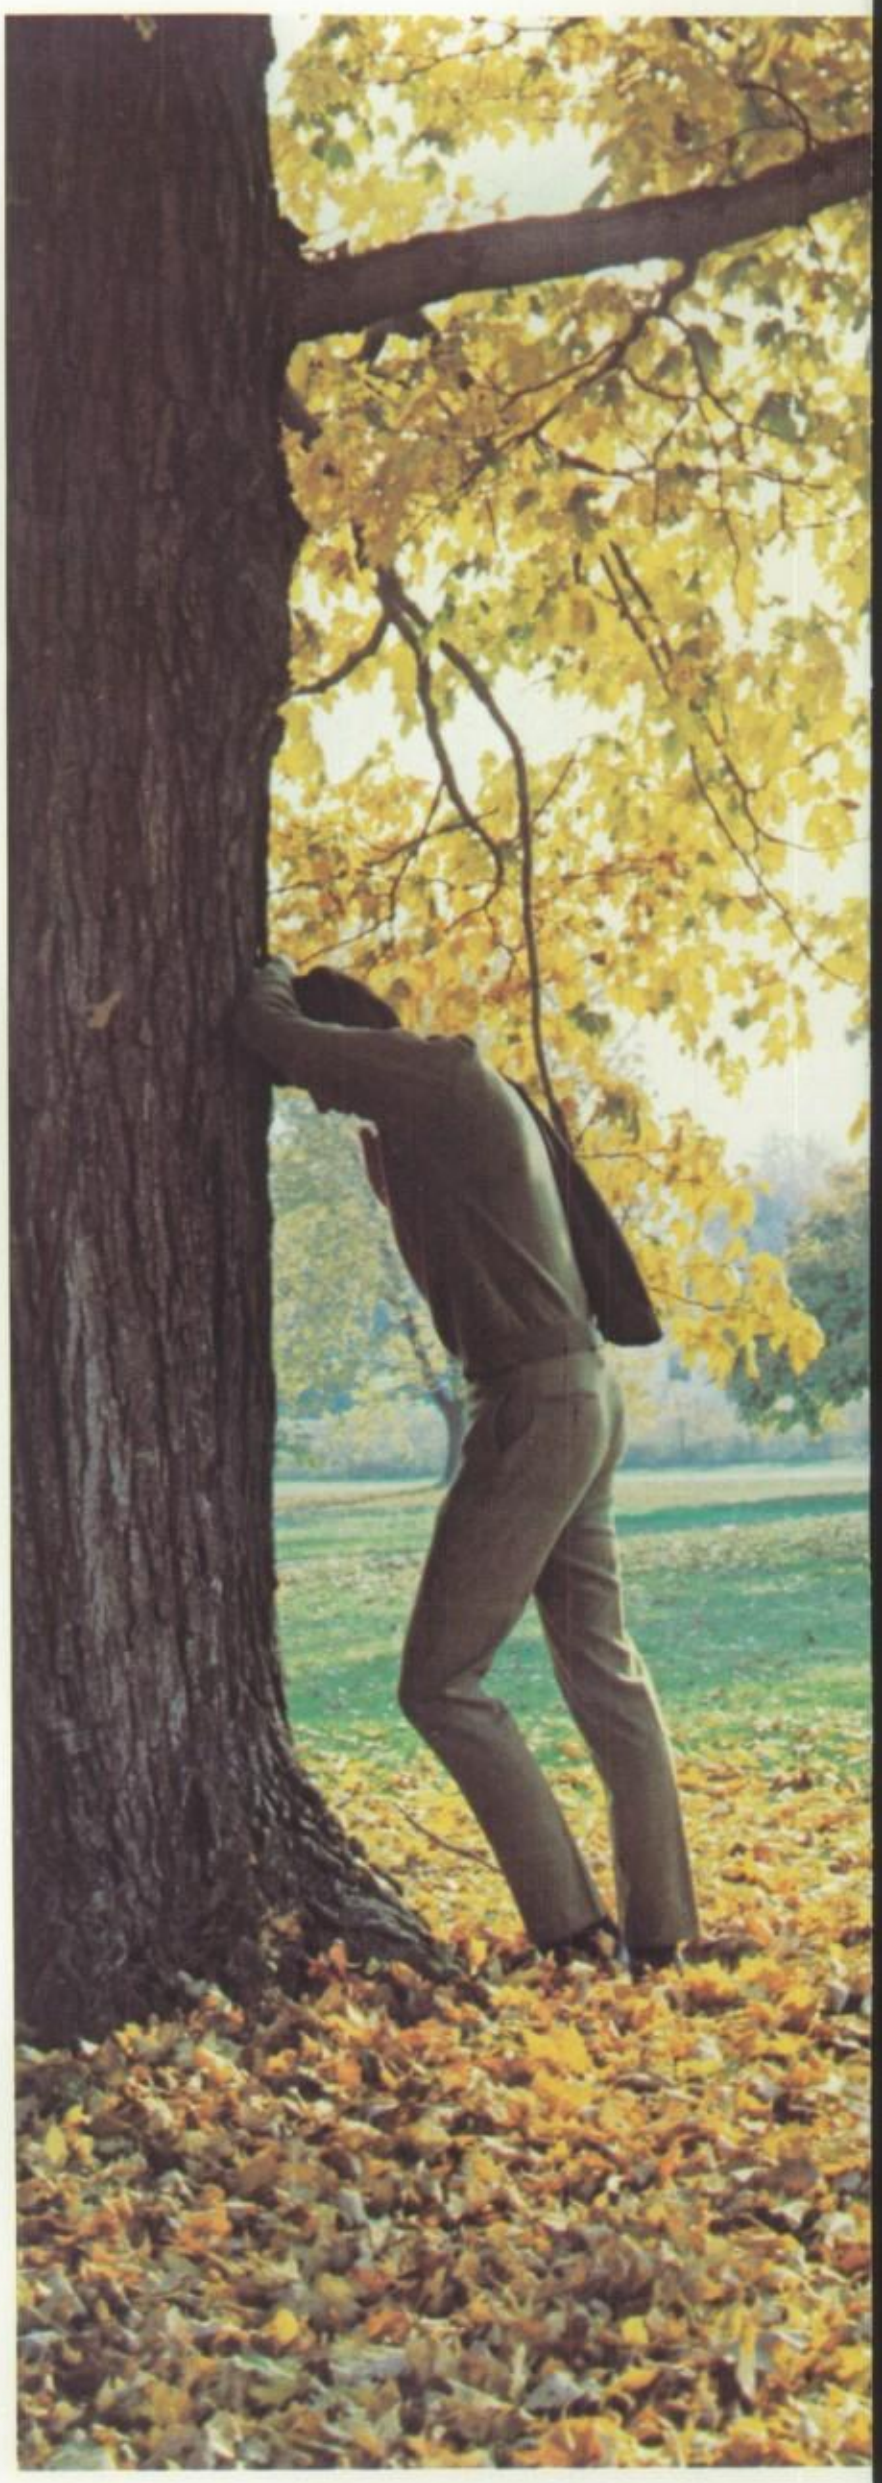
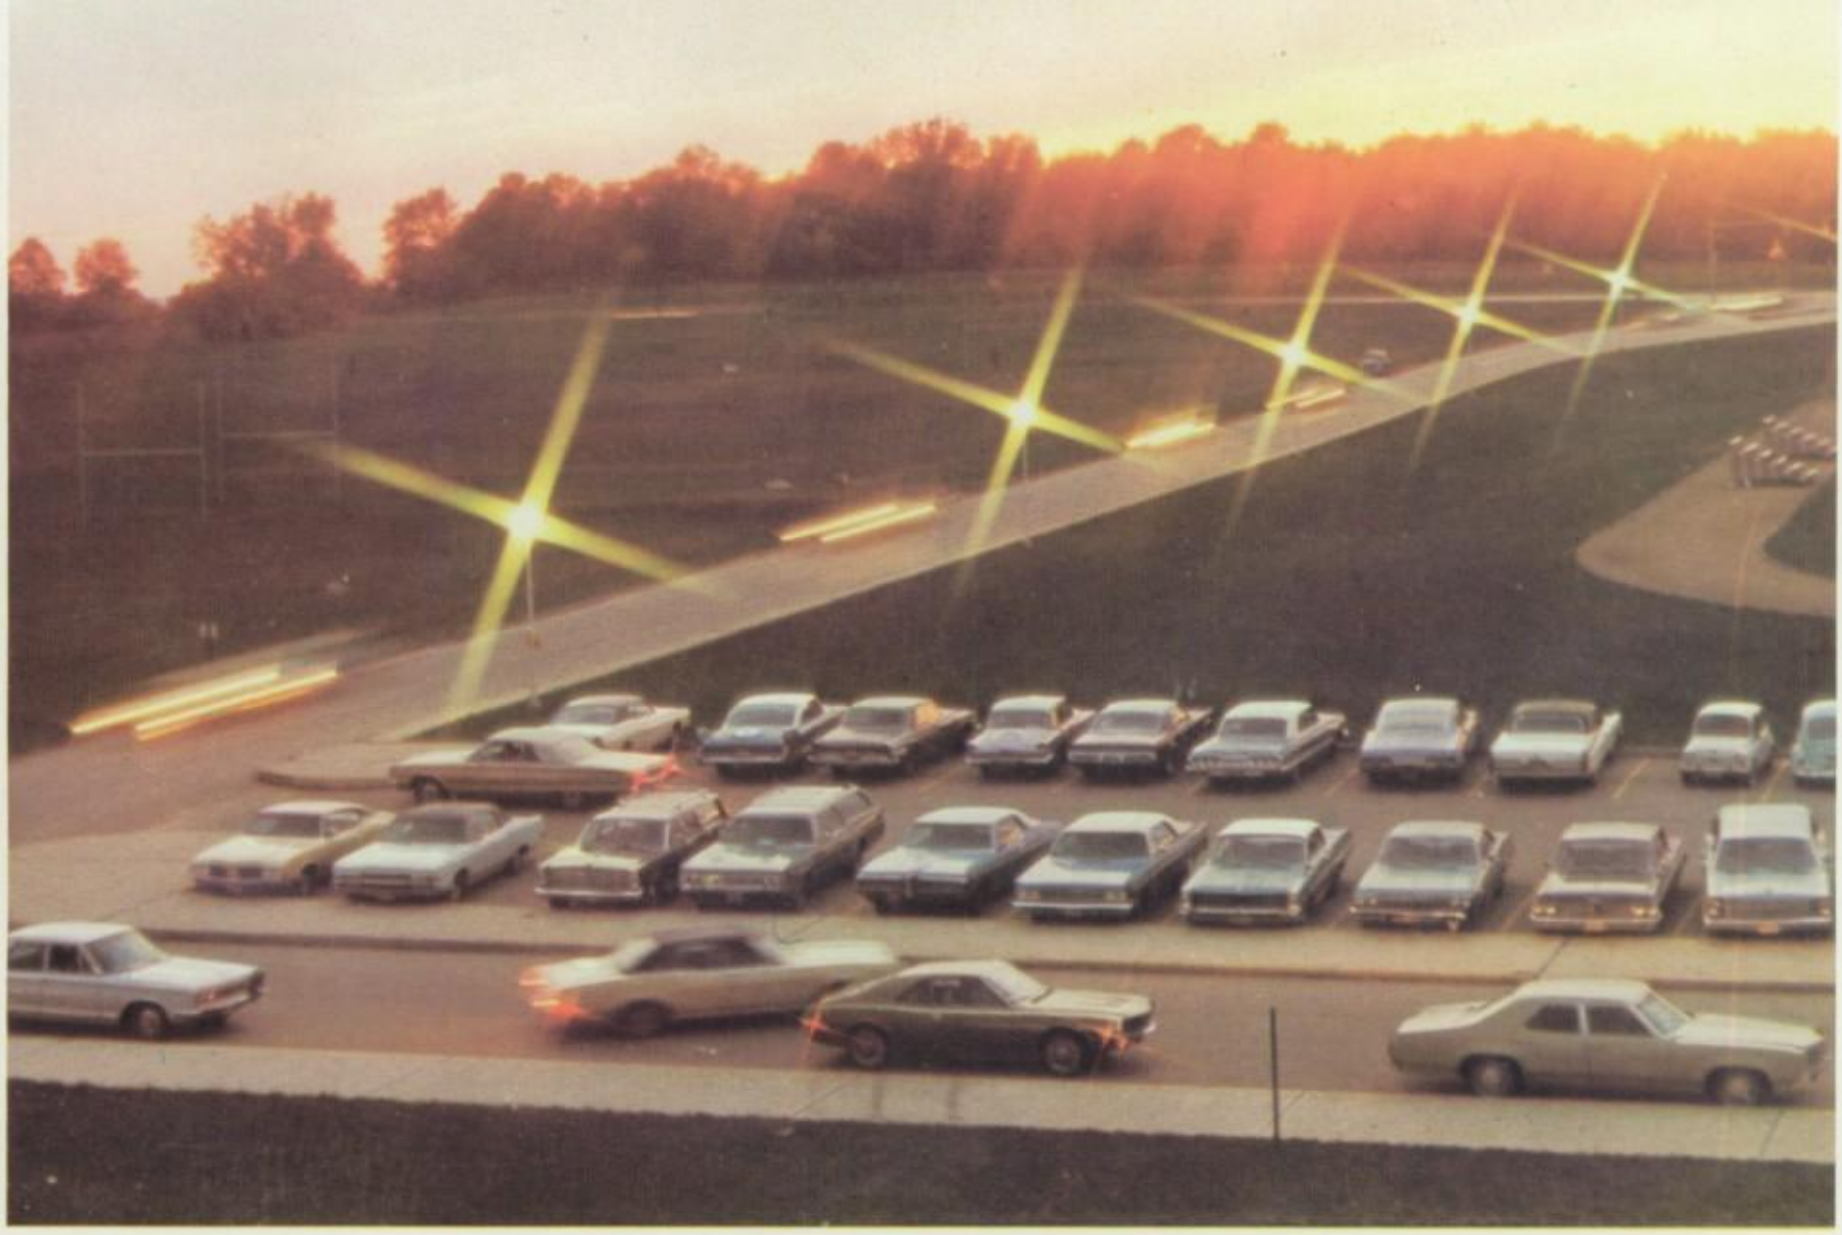
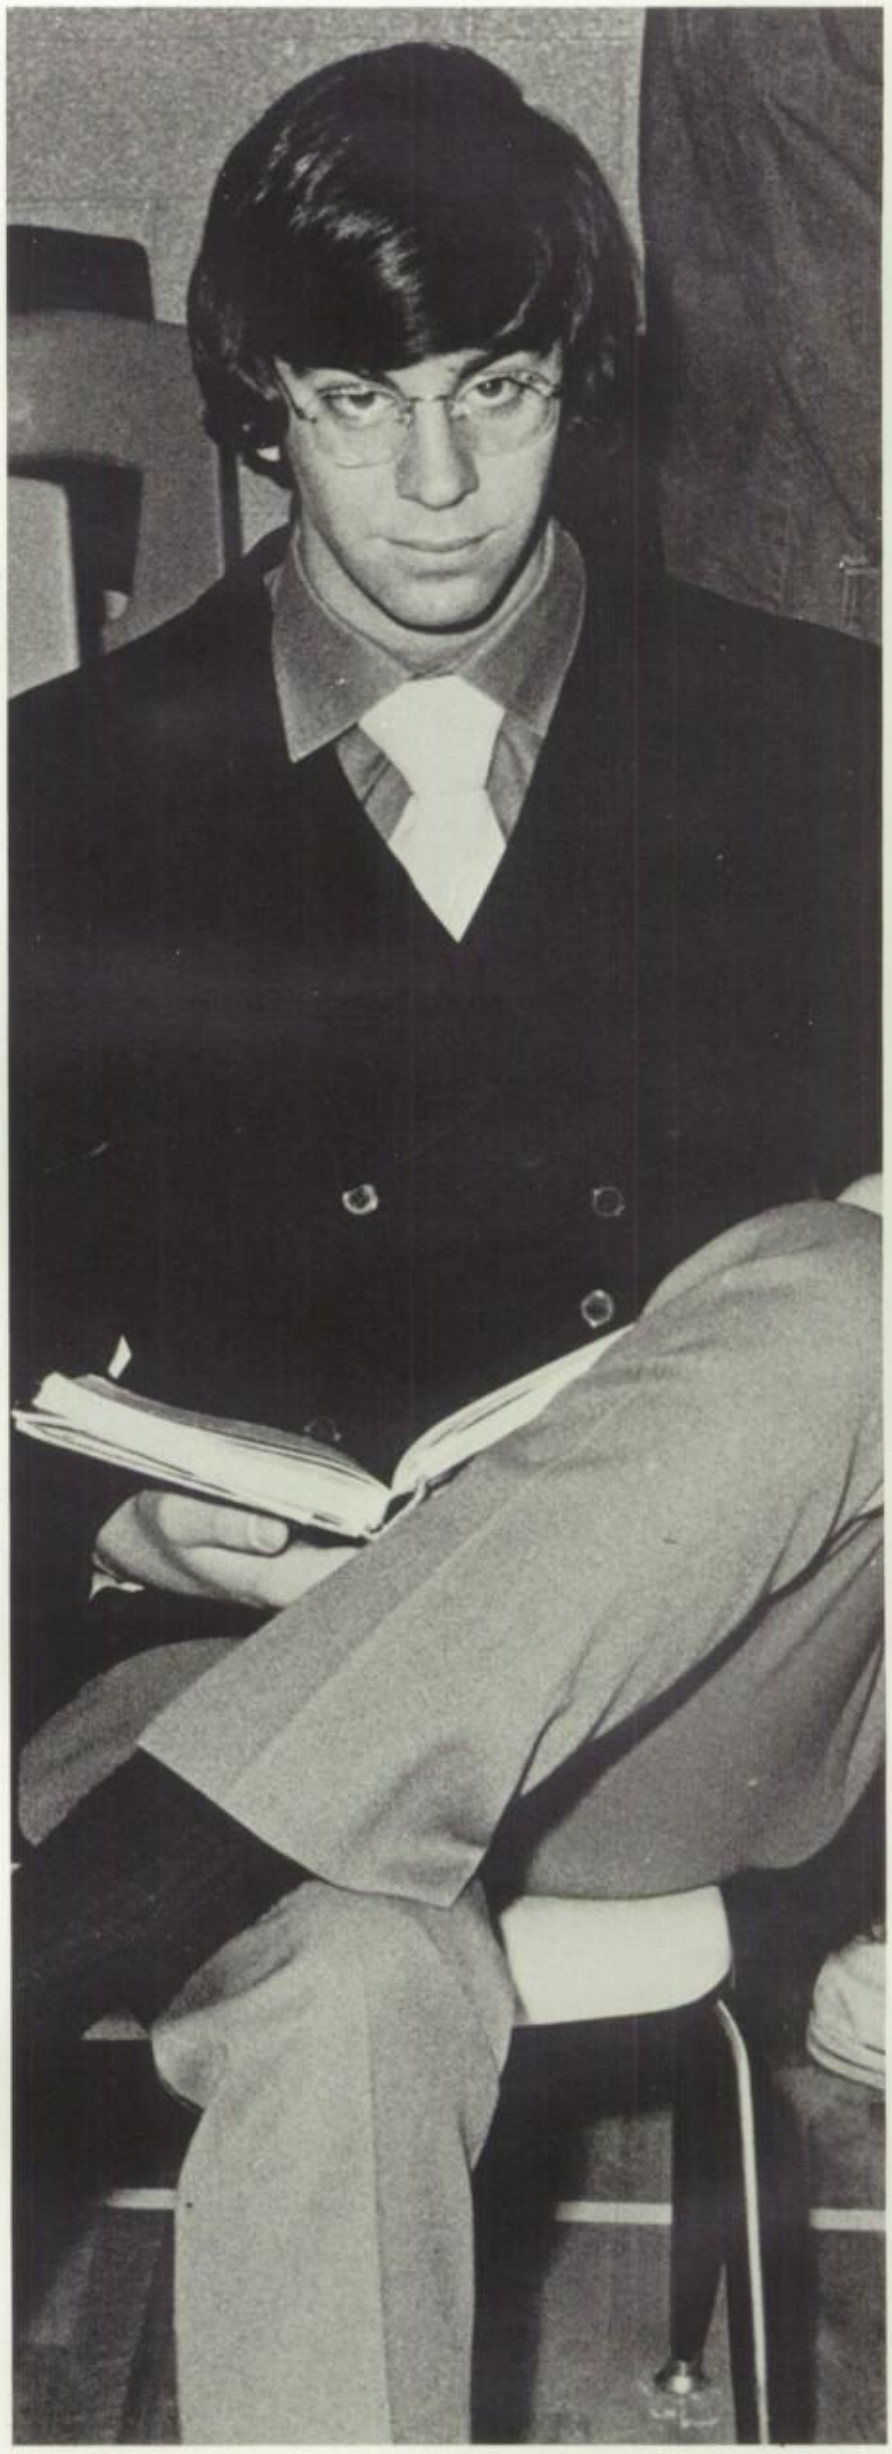
the beginning of tomorrow.
Let me be the future.
Let me be the hope.
Let me be the Atlas
upholding the world
with the promise
of tomorrow.
For only then,
will I be able to touch
life,
joy,
and love.





Their frustrations
are my frustrations,
and yours, too.



But, their good times are something else.

It is cold,
very cold.
Only light can end;
the wait,
the search.
A spark,
in the dark vastness
of the mind.
Searching,
for fuel to survive.
The fire is lit.
Slowly it grows
bringing warmth and illuminating smiling faces.

I sit in the darkness
and look around me.
I see nothing.
But I can feel
a surpressed eagerness
ready to break loose
in those about me.
Waiting,
Searching . . .

I stand at the beginning of an age.
An age of great bounds
in knowledge.
Yet not for a beginning,
for beginnings are redundant.
But that,
each moment
has a beginning,
though knowledge
expands limitlessly.
I must find happiness and end of human difficulty alone.

From the first ray
of life,
I have wanted
to know.
With every day
I have learned.
Yet . . .
It is not enough,
It will never be enough.
To live
I must know.
To know
I must learn.
For knowledge
is the root of mankind.

I stand listening to the music.
The music saying what cannot
be said.
Expressing
what cannot be expressed.
The notes;
moving in rhythm
with my soul send the vibrations
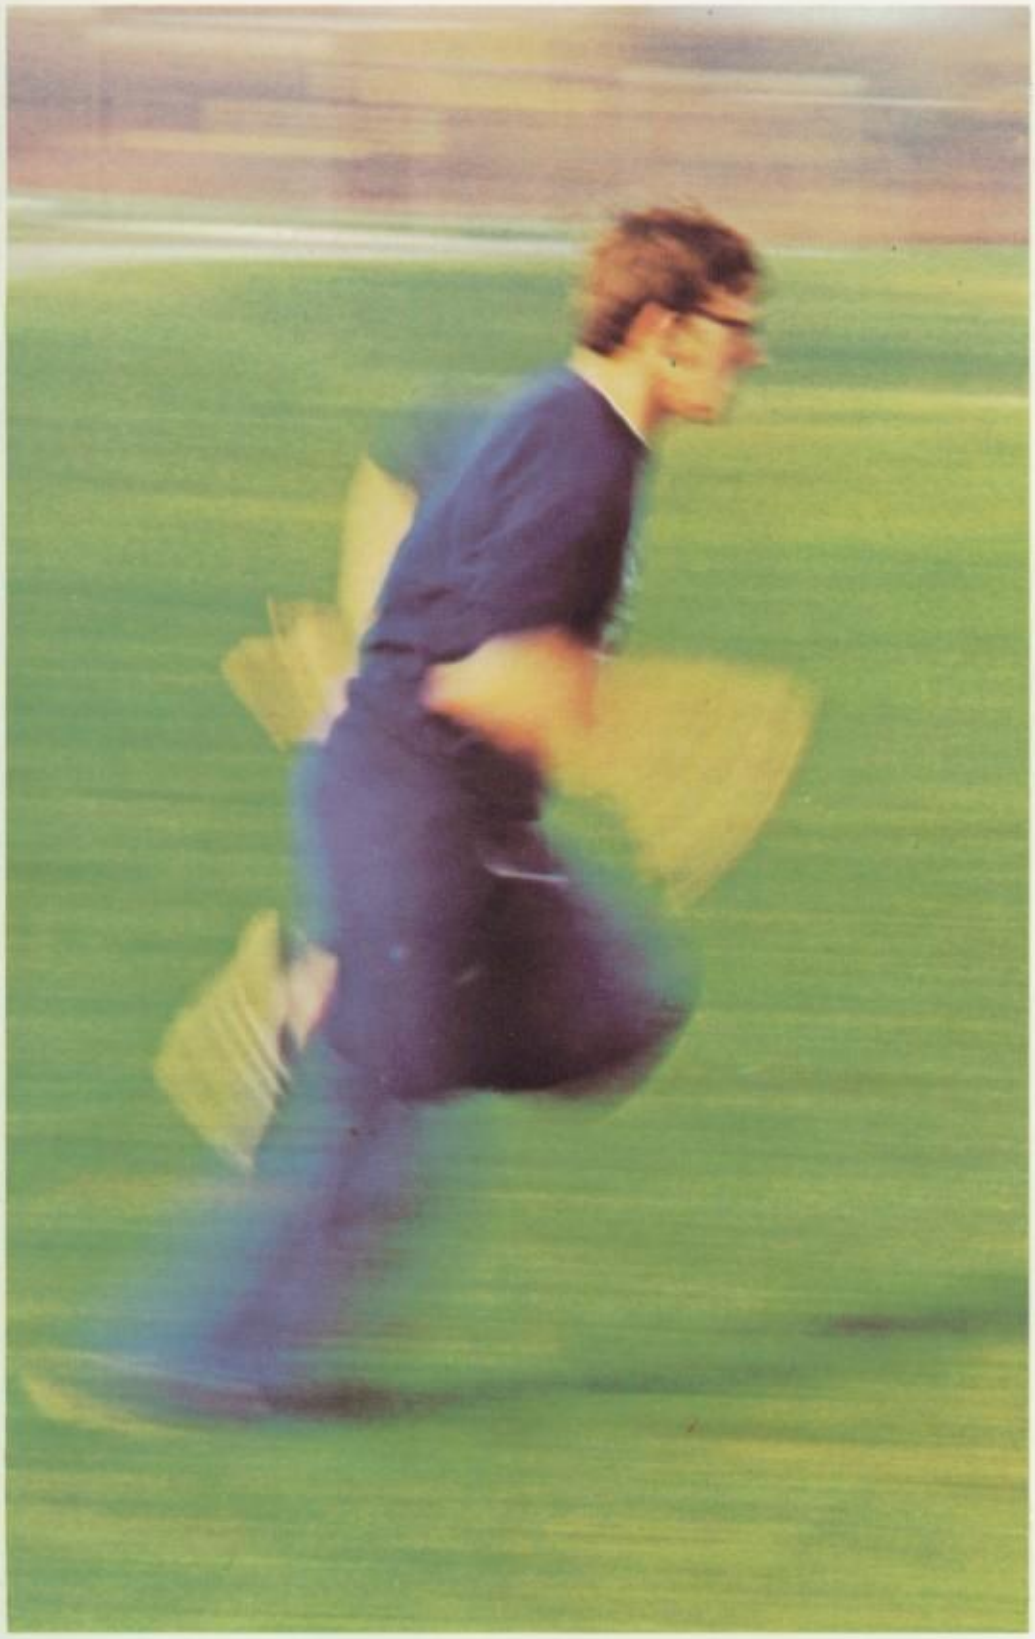
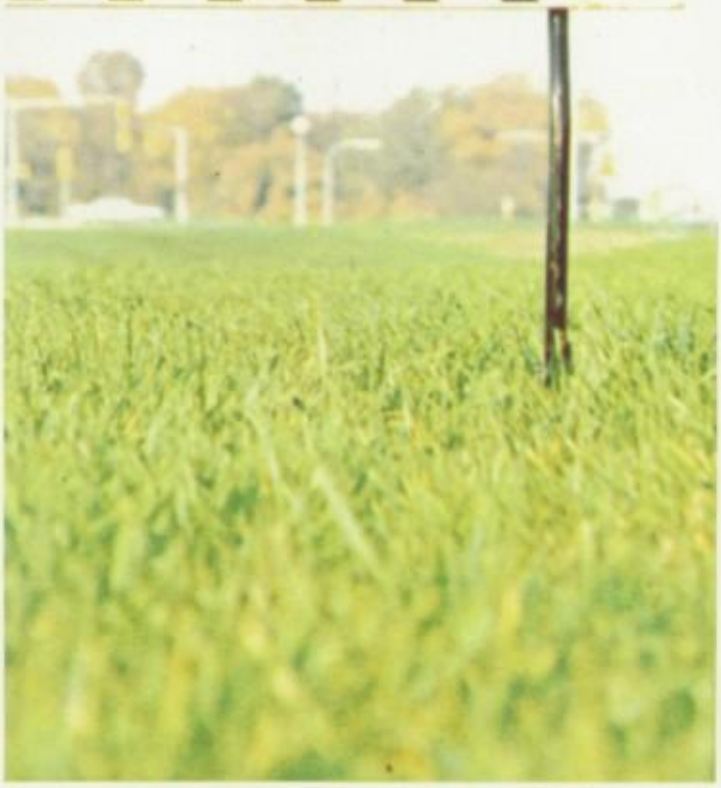
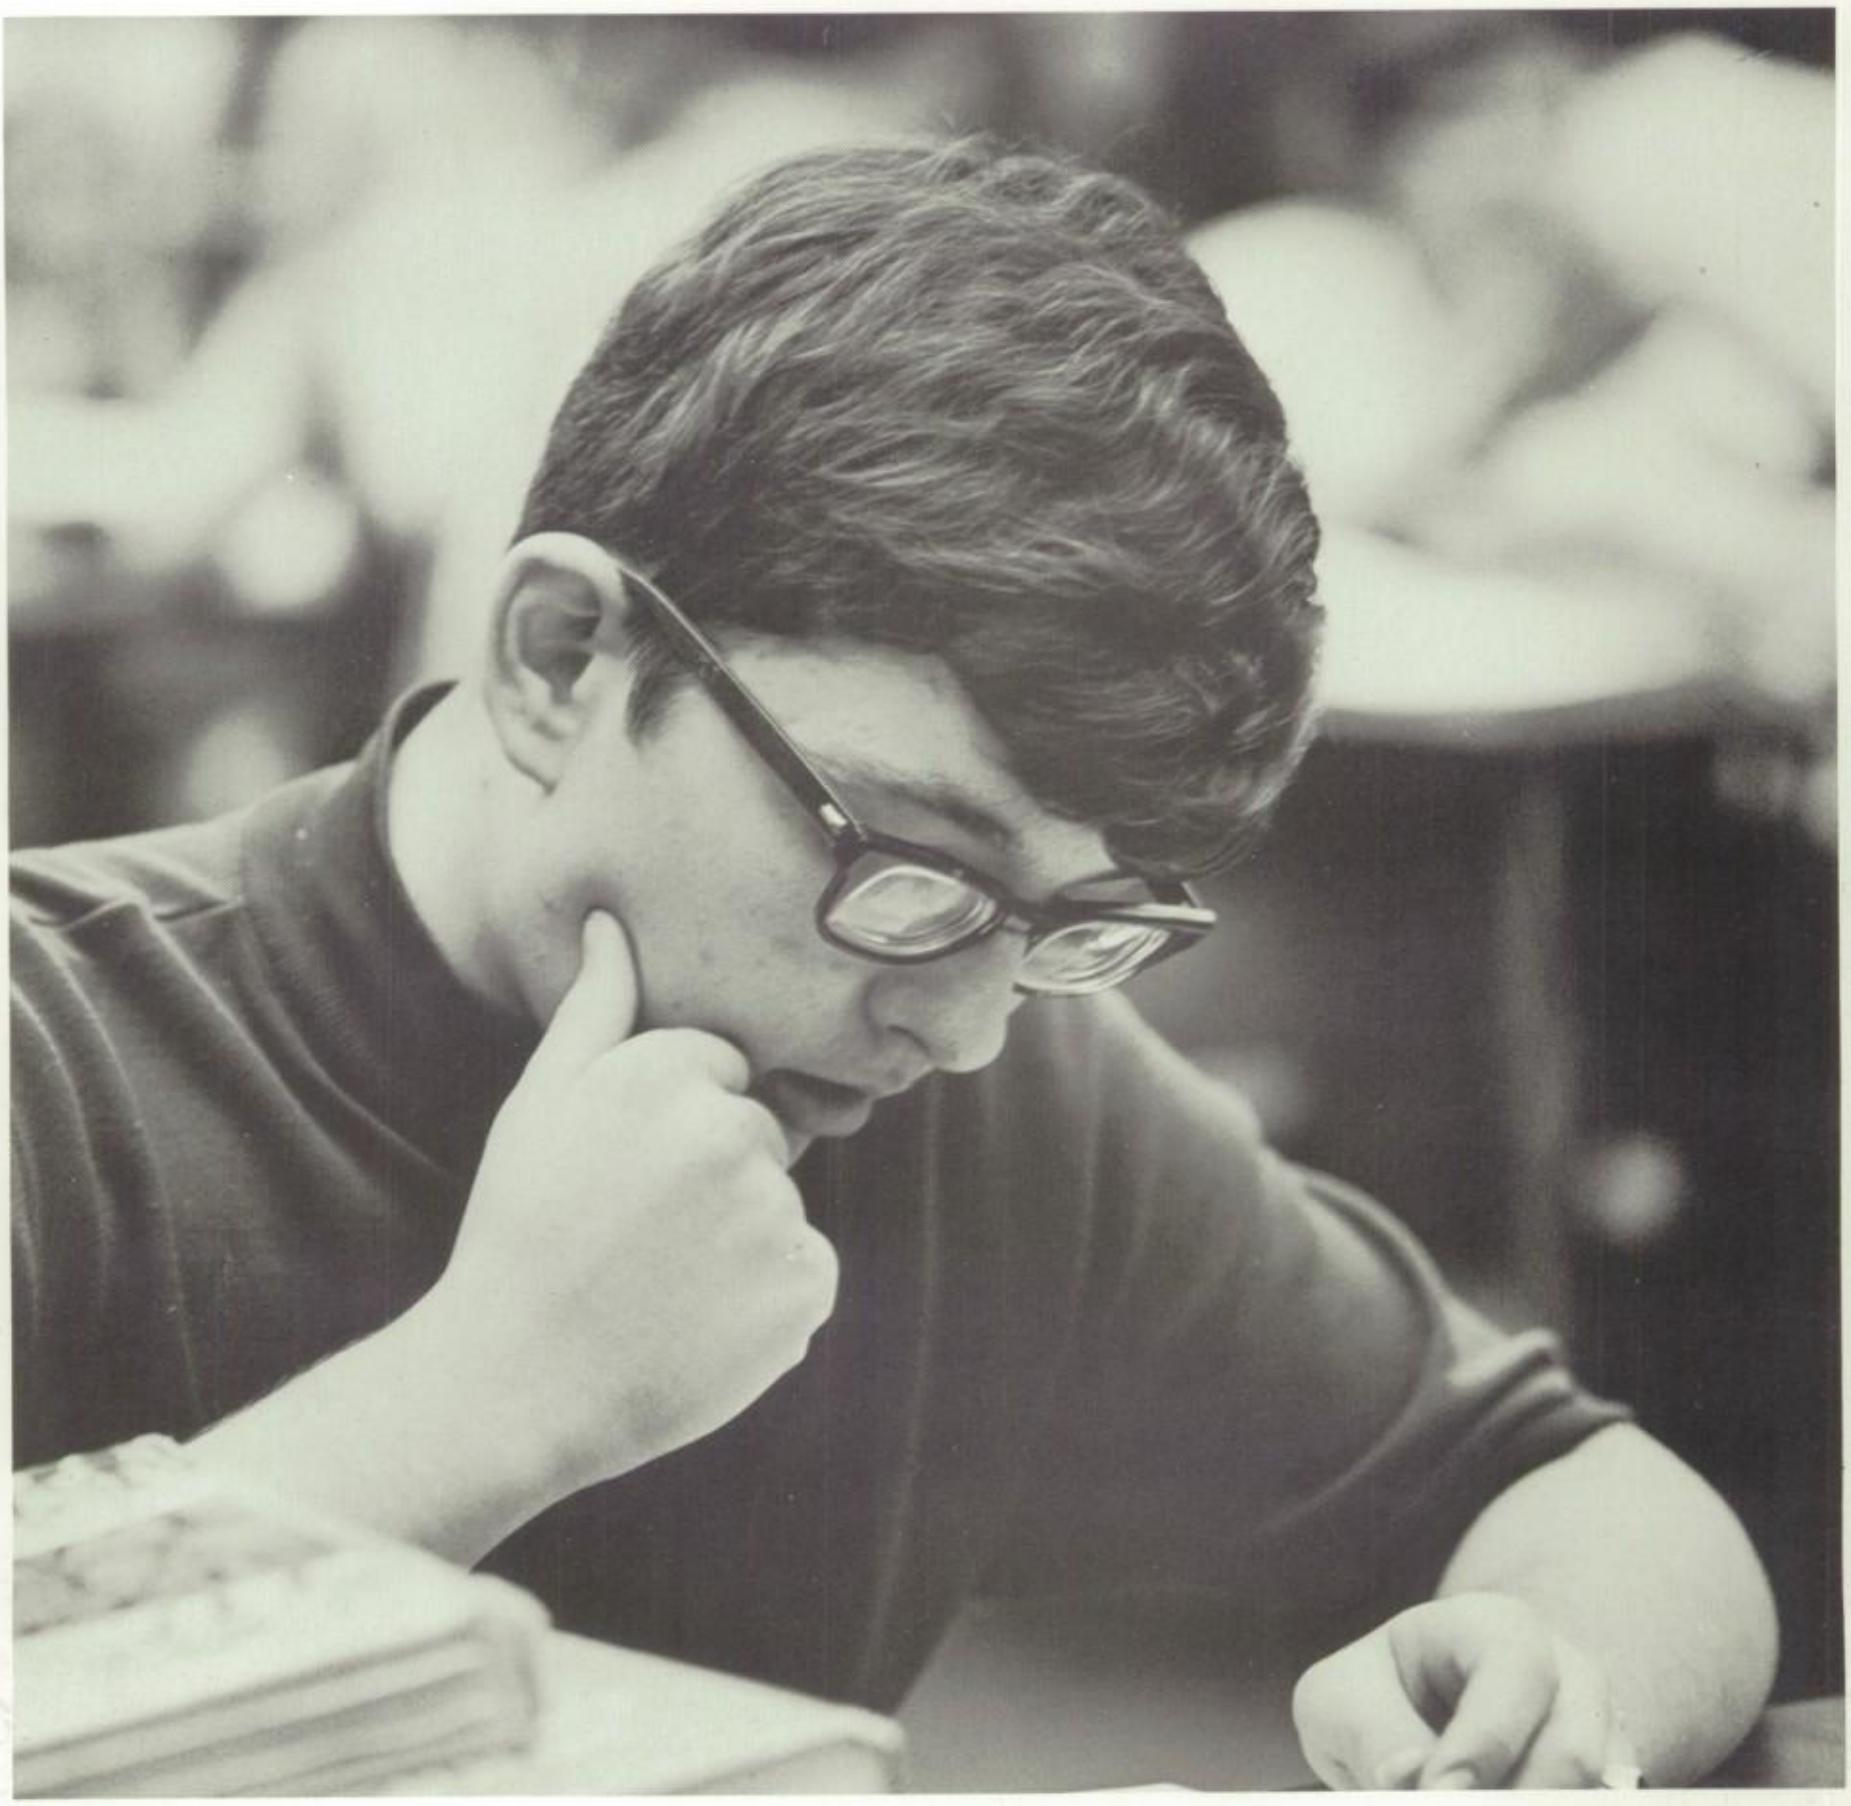
to all parts
of my body.
I stand and I feel;
I think; I listen.

The white line
so far,
yet so near.
I must reach
it first.
The muscles in my body,
pounding
in rhythm.
Faster! Faster!
Till I think
I will die.
Yet, I cannot.
For the white line
is mine.







The quiet sound,
calling to me softly
I must go
for it holds my future.
Going away
from the crowd I feel a tranquil peace; Yet . . .

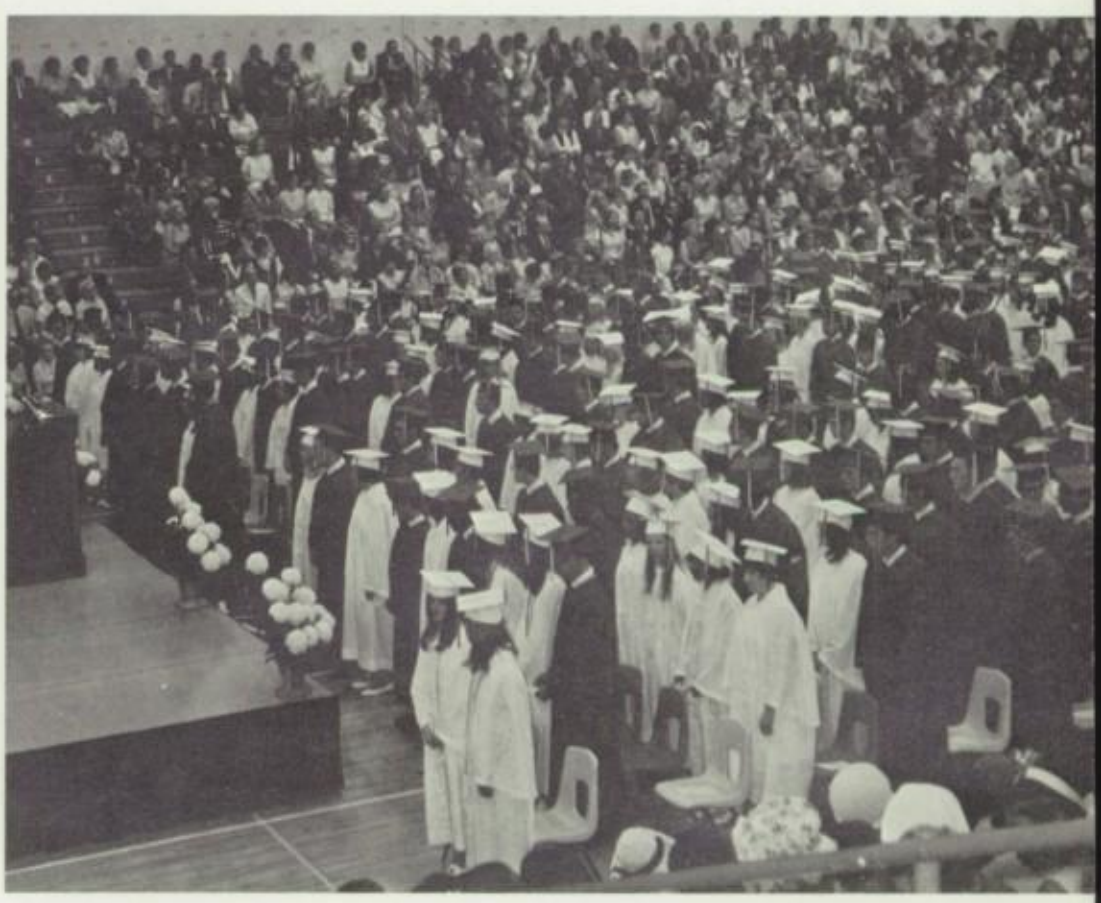
They are calling to me.
Louder
and louder
their voices grow.
I must go
for I need a friend,
maybe two,
and happiness
brings another peace;
that of not being alone.



Here we stand walking hand in hand;
on the threshold of a dream.

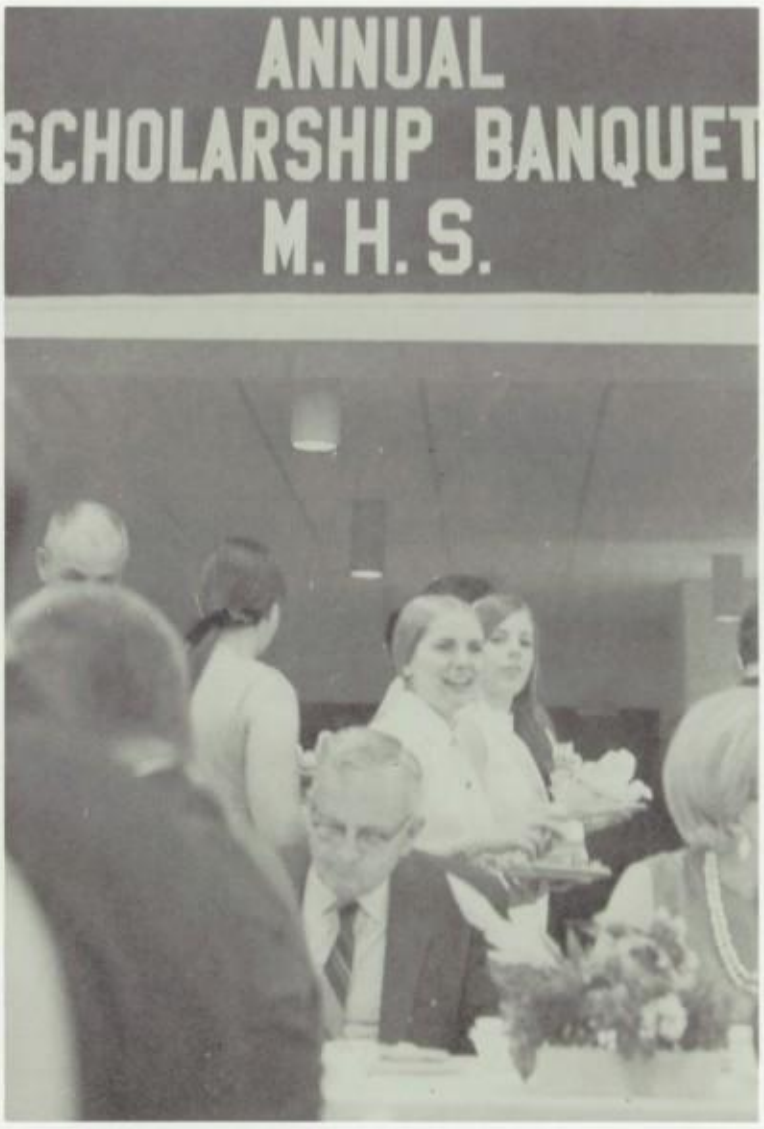
Council Sponsors Activities

Ten boys and ten girls are annually elected by each class as representatives of the student body. The council's main function is the sponsoring of various activities during the school year. These include Homecoming, publication of the student handbook, student-faculty basketball game, Scholarship Banquet, and serving as guides during orientation on parent's night.

This year two members of the council were invited to sit on a dress code committee for the school board. Its purpose was to define what students should and should not wear. Mrs. Schick and Mr. Ritter served as advisers to the council.

Mr. Seta presides as guest speaker at Scholarship Banquet.

Mrs. Lawrence expresses gratitude for banquet dedication.



Banquet honors top ten per cent of each class.

Mr. Mayabb receives token of appreciation from MHS faculty.

Wardlow, Homecoming Queen Of 1970.

An annual event at MHS for many years, Homecoming 1970 was a lot of fun for many Middies. The senior boys elected eleven senior girls as queen candidates this year. The girls were permitted to choose their own escorts. The traditional week of campaigning and the homecoming assembly were resumed this year, although there were some limitations. Grub day was recognized by the student body, and the Thursday night bonfire was a scene of Middie spirit. The candidates and their escorts were introduced the next morning at the homecoming assembly. Pep talks to gain support for the Middie football team were delivered. All the festivities passed without incident, and they showed much enthusiasm from the multitude of supporters. The end of the celebration came for many at half-time that night, but for others it just began as Miss Rhonda Wardlow was crowned MHS Homecoming Queen of 1970 with Rita Reynolds and Cindy Palmer as her princesses.

Editors on the move

1970-1971
Optimist Staffs

The OPTIMIST is a combination of all the different staffs which work together to produce a yearbook that captures all the moods, events, and special moments of the past year. The pages do not show all the tensions, confusion, and problems that the editors and their staffs must face in order to meet their deadlines. However, the work and headaches are worth the feeling of satisfaction of a job well done.

This year's theme is "On a Threshold of a Dream", which strives to show all the goals and changes that are being met. The 1970-1971 OPTIMIST, under the direction of Mr. Kendall Craft, has tried to express its theme with special effect photographs and more emphasized color shots depicting the school year.

Middletonian Staff Informs Student Body

With the aid of their supervisor, Mrs. Mary Kindell, the Middletonian staff kept the students and faculty well informed on life at MHS. The journal is headed by the editor-in-chief, Anna Banks. The staffs include feature, sports, general news, fine arts, business and advertising, circulation, photography, typists, and cartoonists. Being of high caliber, the paper has won many awards in previous years. The Middletonian is published bi-weekly and all printing is done at the Franklin Chronicle. This publication offers interested students an excellent opportunity for experience in journalism. Try-outs are held in early fall and are open to all three classes.

White and Purple Reveals MHS Creativity

Affording the students of MHS a chance to express themselves in an artistic and cultural form, the White and Purple serves a very useful purpose. As an outlet for voicing one's feelings and beliefs, the White and Purple staff, headed by Colin Yeary, considers all the material submitted by the students of MHS. The magazine consists mostly of poems, short stories and drawings. The magazine is published tri-annually and is included in the student activity ticket discount. The publication is directed and advised by Mrs. Barber.

Quill & Scroll member Linda Craycraft achieves journalism honor through publications work.

Quill & Scroll Honors Journalists

For another year the MHS chapter of Quill & Scroll has recognized the outstanding journalists of the school. Members of the organization are selected from juniors and seniors who rank in the upper third of their class and have done superior work on the Optimist, Middletonian, and White and Purple. Based on scholarship and faculty recommendations, candidates were inducted during an initiation in the spring of 1971.

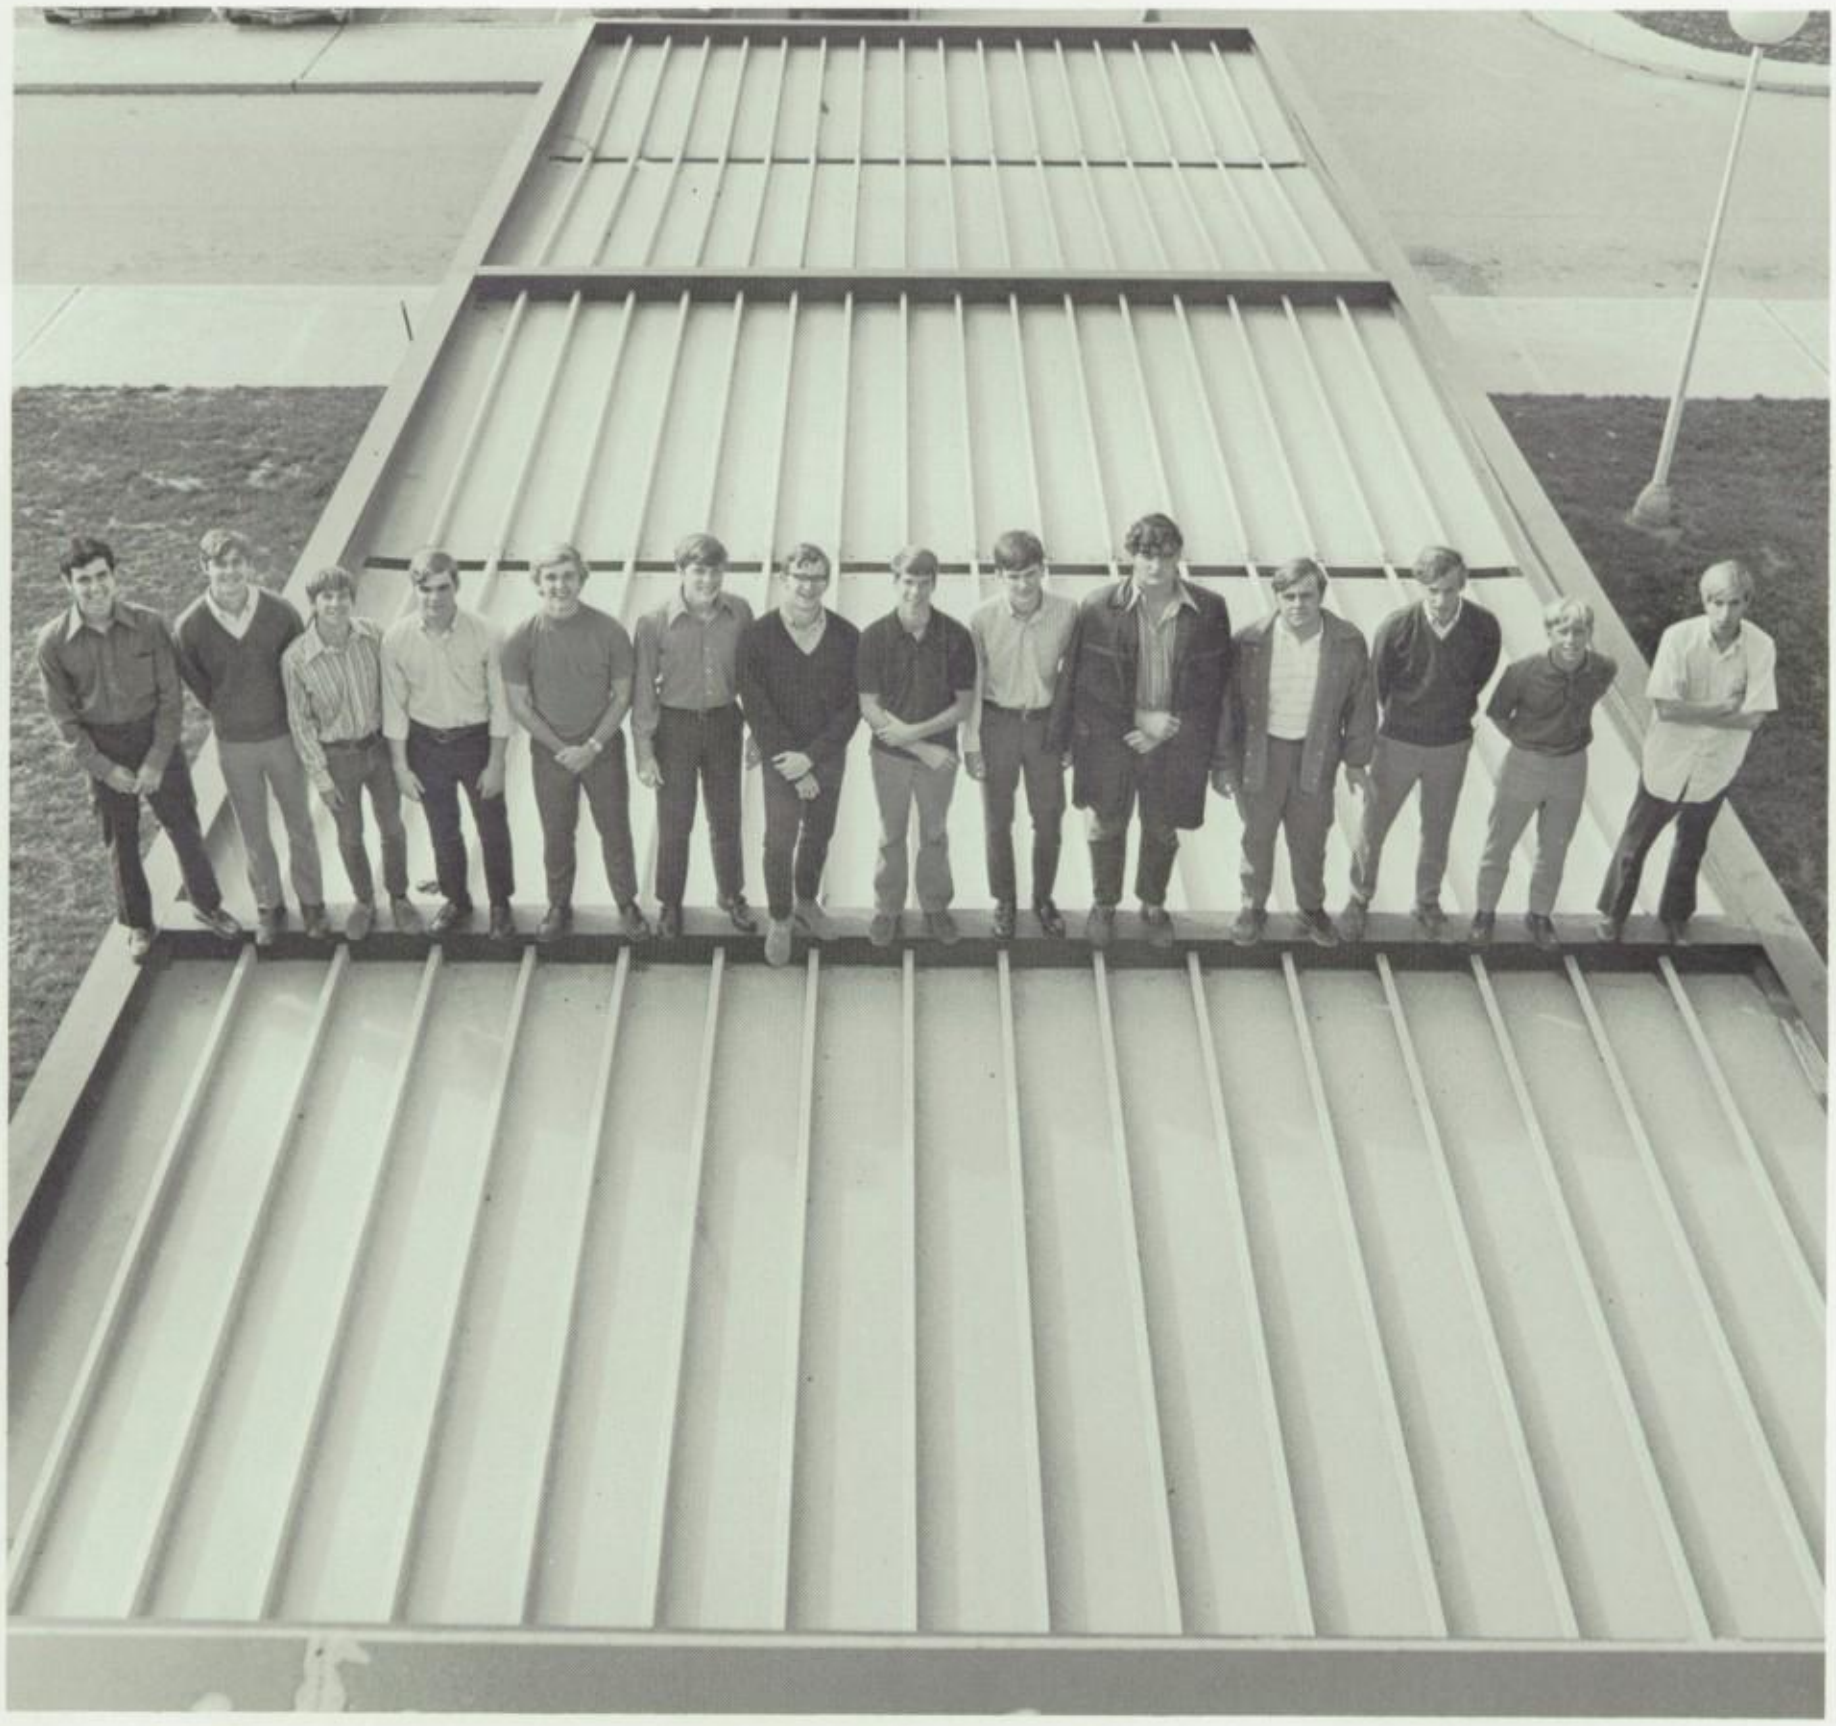
Members attend traditional church initiation.

Y-Teens Promote Service to Community

Y-Teens are composed of eight triangles supervised by Miss Croswell. For one week in the fall the girls who passed the written test were at the mercy of the older members. A formal ceremony to initiate new members was conducted by cabinet members.

This year six girls were honored to represent Ohio during the World Fellowship Week in Washington, D.C. Y-Teens not only promotes service to the community by various projects, but also plans events such as hayrides and ski trips. Y-Teens trys to broaden a girl's interests by offering her a variety of worthwhile and entertaining projects.

The cabinet members pose in traditional triangle with advisor, Miss Croswell.



The Hi-Y Council stands tall in year of events.

Hi-Y Lines Up For Action

The Hi-Y program gives high school boys a chance to have fun in organized groups and serve their community at the same time. Many new Hi-Y's have sprung up at MHS to join the well-established ones. Each of these clubs meets once every week during the school year at the Y.M.C.A. At these meetings the members discuss money-making projects, service projects, and recreational activities. Many of the clubs participate in the organized athletic competition. Such sports as football, volleyball, basketball, and ping-pong are offered and supervised by the Y.M.C.A. Each group also elects two representatives to sit on the governing body of all Hi-Y activities, the Hi-Y council. Mr. Al Shafor is advisor for the overall Hi-Y program.

Buckeye State Delegates

Based on the student's service to M.H.S., two girls and six boys were chosen to attend Buckeye Girls' and Boys' State last June. The girls attended Capital University in Columbus, and the boys attended Ohio University in Athens. The main purpose of these sessions is to give the delegates valuable first-hand experience in the operation of the three levels of government in Ohio. The memorable week included campaigning for offices, elections, the actual running of their government, assemblies, and lectures. These delegates are sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and American Legion Post No. 218.

Boys' State delegates: David Milton, Paul Nisbet, Bob Coleman, Ed Gibbons, Mike Maines, and Dick Hollenbaugh.

Girls' State delegates: Alternate Rhonda Wardlow, Marilyn McIntosh, Chris Weatherwax, Alternate Lynn Rothermel.

J.C.O.W.A. Discusses Todays Problems

The Junior Council on World Affairs is composed of those students interested in discussing the situations of the world today. Advised by Mr. David Popp, the group meets regularly to debate on todays issues and world problems. A variety of programs and topics lead to interesting and informative discussions. J.C.O.W.A. stimulates the thinking of its members and helps them to better understand the problems, issues, and events now occurring throughout the world.

Language Clubs Promote Foreign Culture

The French Club, a new addition to the language department, is advised by Miss Roudebush. The requirements to join are to have taken two years of French and have a sincere interest in the language. The programs for the meeting consist of singing songs and playing games of the French culture.

Spanish National Honor Society is open to second year Spanish students maintaining a 3.33 average and showing interest in Spanish culture. Special activities included a pretzel sale, Spanish Christmas party, initiation of new members in March, state convention in April, and an end-of-the-year picnic.

J.C.L. and Latin National Honor Society are advised by Miss Demetrion. Membership in J.C.L. is open to any student who has studied Latin. The highlight of the year is the traditional Roman banquet and slave sale in May. Latin National Honor Society is for students achieving an average of 3.66 after three four-week periods of study. There are no meetings, no dues, and it is strictly honorary.

Sp. N.H.S. officers: Marquita Arnold, president; Dara Snelling, vice-president; Cathy Kerr, secretary; Barb Standley, treasurer.

Members of sp.N.H.S. promote foreign interest.

French Club: Miss Katherine Roudebush, advisor; Leslie Conover, president; Lynn Conover, vice-president; Kay Kokenakis, secretary-treasurer.

Latin National Honor Society members each have a 3.66 average in Latin.

MHS Chess Club Members Constantly Challenged

Fifteen members make up the MHS Chess Club. They compete among themselves for placement on a pyramid, on which the top block represents the best player. The top five on the pyramid partake in the Dayton Chess League Tournaments which are held monthly. The group participated in the state tournament during the Christmas holidays. The club members, advised by Mr. Harold Kesselring, constantly keep each other alert by challenging an opponent for his place on the pyramid.

Students Volunteer Time to Aid Others

The Nightengale Club is an organization to promote the interest in any medical profession. By mutual help and understanding of health careers these girls work for professional and educational advancement of allied health fields. The club meetings are held once a month and include speakers, panel discussions, and movies. Many of the girls pursue their careers in medicine by volunteering as Candy Stripers and Junior Gray Ladies at Middletown Hospital.

Volunteer Diane Cooper aids hospital visitors.

Debbie Williams delivers flowers to patients.

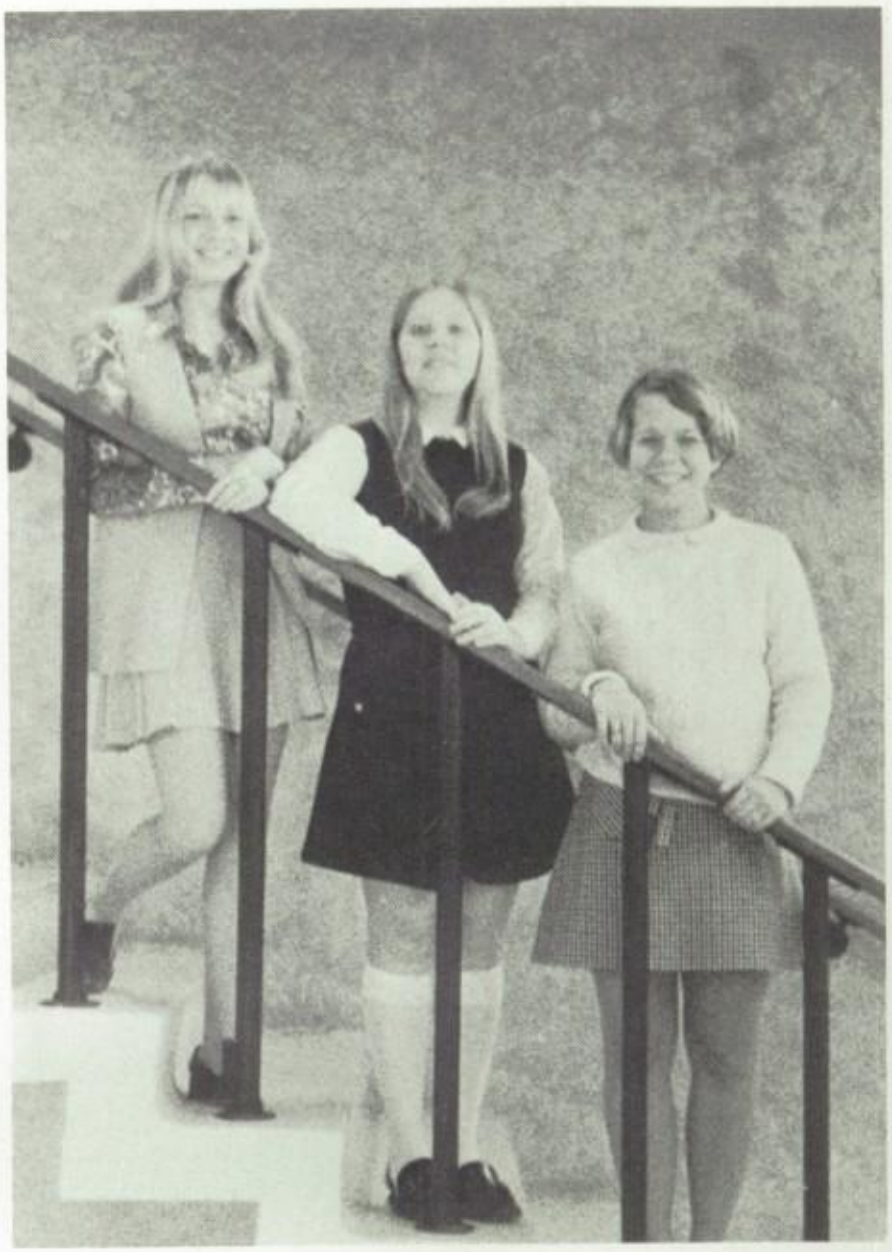
FSA, FTA Stimulates Interest for Future Jobs

Future Secretaries of America is an organization that helps prepare girls who plan to enter secretarial work. They learned what will be expected of them in fulfilling their future jobs. FSA held monthly meetings, and their advisor was Mrs. Farrar. FSA is sponsored by the Middletown Chapter of National Secretaries Association.

Future Teachers of America introduced opportunities in the field of education. The members of this organization tutored underprivileged children in Franklin during their spare time. Miss Katherine Roudebush was the supervisor. The meetings often featured speakers affiliated with the Middletown School System.



FTA officers: Debi Roehll, president; Glenda Salley, secretary; Jean Hayes, treasurer.

FSA officers: Judy Betler, vice president; Pam Jeffery, treasurer; Debbie Gray, secretary; and Charma Williams, president.

Varsity Club members join the organization when they have earned a varsity letter, without an initiation this year.

Varsity Club officers: Pat Dillon, secretary; Don McKeller, vice-president; Tom Long, treasurer; and Niel Cohen, president.

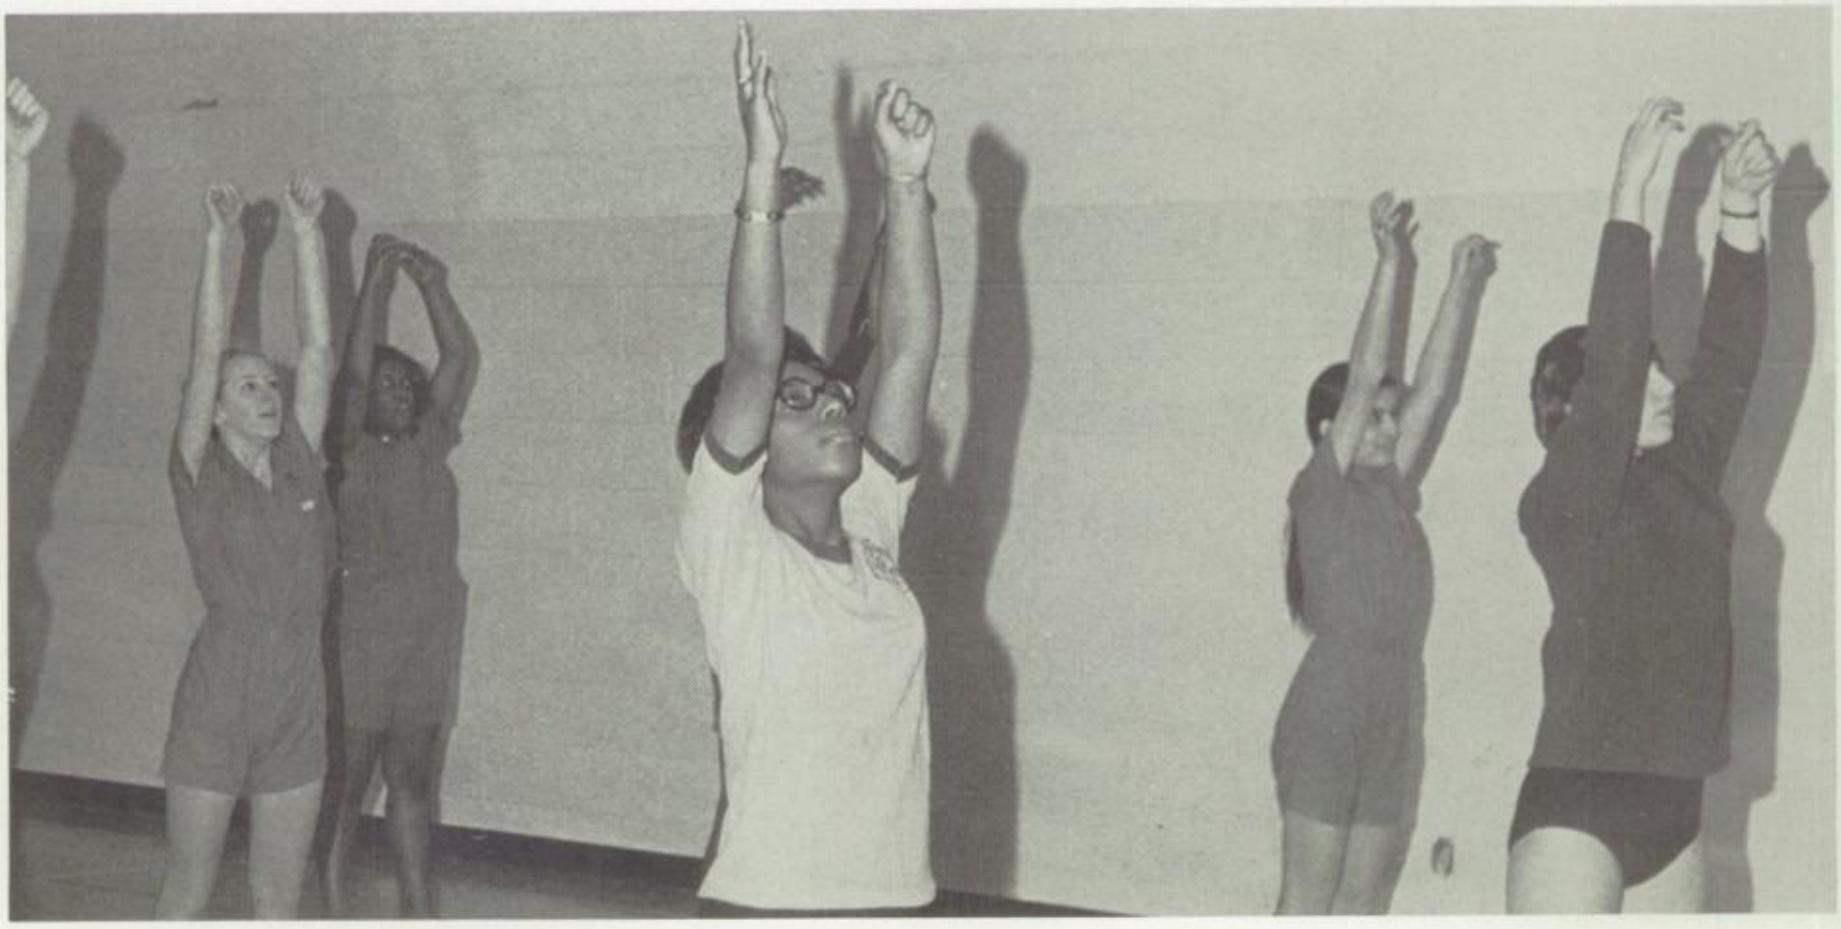
Varsity Club Promotes Good Sportsmanship

Promoting athletics, health, and good sportsmanship, the Varsity Club had another successful year. Under the new direction of Mr. Gary Baumgartner and Mr. Phil Bergen, the club changed some of its old policies. The grueling initiations were dropped, because of the philosophy that any athlete with the skill and determination to earn a varsity letter should be recognized for his work.

Among the events sponsored by the Varsity Club was the exciting Cincinnati Reds vs. Middletown Faculty basketball game. The game, won by the Reds 84-83, was clinched by two foul shots in the final two seconds of play. Other projects included selling programs at home football and basketball games, and selling Middie seat cushions.

GAA Officers: Sherry Hayes, treasurer; Diane Cooper, Secretary; Wendy Draudt, vice-president; and Chris Weatherwax, president.

GAA Board members are in charge of directing activities.



Gym leader Jarleen Grandberry heads gym class in doing exercises for their modern dance course.

Gym leaders give assistance to Miss Hamilton and Miss Moizuk in conducting girls' gym classes.

Nancy Simonson assists students in learning fencing skills.

Gym Leaders Instruct Gymnastical Classes

The Girls' Athletic Association's purpose is to promote an interest in athletics, health, and sportsmanship among the members of the girls' gym classes. Members competed in such sports as volleyball, table tennis, bowling, golf, fencing, swimming, tennis, and archery. Members acted as managers of the various sports. By participating in these sports the girls accumulated points. At the annual GAA picnic in May, the girls with the most points received various awards. The senior with the most outstanding athletic and sportsmanship record received a trophy and a scholarship at the Recognition Assembly.

The girls sold candy to support their activities. The highlight of the year was the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance at which a senior girl was crowned Daisy Mae. The Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Miss Janet Hamilton, is one of the most popular activities offered at MHS.

One part of GAA is the Girl's Leaders Club, which was organized primarily for girls who have an interest in physical education and in developing leadership. The girls had opportunities to help teach in regular gym classes. They also attended workshops for each sport. The girls received GAA points for their work.

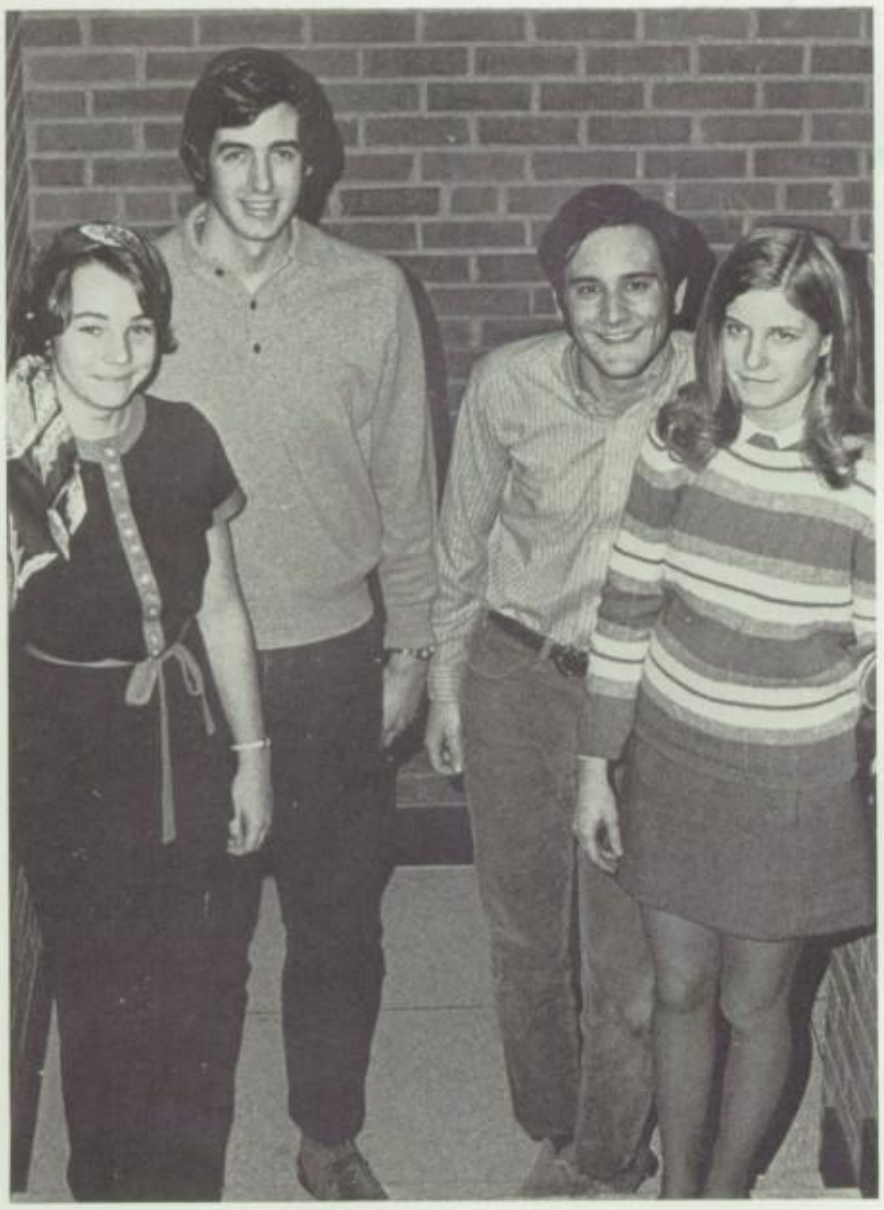
Mu Alpha Theta offers a knowledge of a more advanced education in math for interested students.

Mu Alpha Theta Displays Interest in Mathematics

The Middletown chapter of Mu Alpha Theta is under the leadership of Mrs. Evelyn Hensley. The club, consisting of thirty-five members this year, is open to juniors and seniors who take a math course. Members must maintain a grade average of a B+.

The activities of the club consisted of bi-weekly meetings led by the students. The highlight of the year was the annual initiation. The new members were taken into the club at the formal candlelight ceremony.

Mu Alpha Theta officers: Becky Peters, president; Barb Standley, secretary; Sara Schuler, vice-president; and Dick Hollenbaugh, treasurer.



Ski Club officers: Barb Standley, vice-president; Steve Fletcher, president; Craig Rubin, secretary; and Sara Schuler, treasurer.

MHS Ski Club Members Take Weekend Ski Trip

The MHS Ski Club is in its second year of existence. This year the club's membership has increased enormously, with approximately fifty students. Anyone interested in becoming a member of the Ski Club was required to attend the first announced meeting and to pay the membership fees. The club's objective is not only to improve the members' skills as skiers, but also to acquaint them the organizing of their annual ski trip. The Ski Club held meetings once a month to discuss the upcoming trip.

This year the club chose to have their trip in Mansfield, Ohio, in the ski area of Snow Trails. Not everyone knew how to ski, so some people took lessons. As a result of the three-day trip, there were many sore muscles, pulled ligaments, and twisted ankles; but everyone had a good time. Mrs. Joanne Hash, Mrs. Wynonia Carey, and Mr. Guy Popplewell were the Ski Club's advisors.

National Honor Society Inducts 91 New Members

Middletown's Chapter of the National Honor Society recognized those students who were outstanding in scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Members were selected from the top third of their class by the faculty. In the spring of 1970, thirty-one juniors, representing five percent of their graduating class, were inducted into membership at an all school assembly. The fall tapping was done differently. The seniors were tapped in their homerooms instead of the regular fall assembly. Then the assembly was held, but only the members were permitted to attend. Voted by the members this year to compete for the National Honor Society's scholarship were Dick Hollenbaugh and Steve Martin. Serving as the society's advisor is Mrs. Louise McBain.

The Middie Marching Band lines up during practice for the coming Friday night's pre-game and half-time performances at Barnitz Stadium.

Marching Band Provides Half-time Entertainment

The Middie Marching Band gave the Middie spirit a boost by performing at MHS football games. The band was directed by a new conductor, Mr. Denver Noggle, assisted by Mr. Ron Browne. The Middies began preparation for their marching season before school started. Late in June the upperclassmen drilled the incoming sophomores twice a week until band camp. One week before school started, the entire band attended Camp Campbell Gard for a week of hard work and immeasurable fun. The Middies practiced marching every day during sixth period for their weekend shows.

Last summer the band marched in both the Memorial Day and Fourth of July parades. In the fall the Marching Band participated in the annual Band Day at Miami University in Oxford, only to be drenched by heavy rainfall. The Middies hosted a Band Spectacular at which area bands performed.

One activity of the Middie Marching Band was the traditional running of a football to Princeton for that GMC game. Mr. Noggle started the ball, student teacher Nancy Norton continued running, and Mr. Browne followed. Then several band members, mostly the equipment managers, took turns running the ball the rest of the way to Princeton. There was one summer project that senior band council members worked on. They painted in stripes of white and purple the tower that the director stands on during marching practice. Then a sign was placed on the tower saying, "Denver's Domain." A similar sign now hangs over Mr. Noggle's office.

The Middie Pep Band provides popular music to entertain fans during varsity basketball games and assemblies.

Symphonic Band performs both a Mid-winter Concert and a Spring Concert under the direction of Mr. William Stiehl.

Students Show Talents In Instrumental Concerts

The Symphonic Band and Concert Band began practicing after football season ended. Students auditioned and, based on ability, were placed in one of the two bands. Symphonic Band performed a Mid-winter Concert, a Spring Concert, concerts at various Middletown schools, and music for graduation. Concert Band gave its performance in the spring.

Many members entered the State Solo and Ensemble Music Contest held at Miami University for high school students in this area. There were numerous superior and excellent ratings awarded to MHS students.

An annual Band Banquet was held in the spring. Students were honored for their achievements in band and orchestra.

Orchestra Performs For School Functions

Conducted by Mr. Ron Browne, Middletown High School's orchestra was kept busy throughout the school year preparing for their various performances. They accompanied the operetta, The Sound of Music; presented the Midwinter Concert with the Symphonic Band on February 13; gave a separate Spring Concert; played for the Freshman High School in the spring; and provided music for Baccalaureate.

In order to make money, the orchestra and band members sold fruit cakes. This money is used to purchase new music, instruments, uniforms, and other needed facilities.

Mixed Choir entertains the Rotary Club and Lions Club during the Christmas season, and the chorus performs at concerts and Baccalaureate.

Choirs Display Abilities

Try-outs for Mixed Choir and Girls' Glee Club are held in the spring by their director, Miss Helen Weinberger. Mixed Choir is open to any MHS boy and only senior girls. Among their many concerts, the choirs performed for the Thanksgiving Ecumenical Service and for the opening of the new CG&E Building.

Triple Trio consists of three sopranos, three contraltos, and three altos chosen by Miss Weinberger from her choirs. They sang at various banquets and assemblies.

Boys' Glee Club, directed by Mr. Noggle, is open to any MHS boy. They met daily and performed in many musical events throughout the year.

Girls' Glee Club performs for assemblies and graduation, and the choir gives other concerts throughout the year.

Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Denver Noggle, meets daily to practice for their various performances.

"It's Academic" Team Appears in TV Contest

This year's "It's Academic" team members were Jamie Heck, team captain; Doug Hattery; Arthur Marx; and Colin Yeary, alternate. After many practice sessions, the team traveled to WLW-TV studios in Cincinnati on September 25. They were accompanied by their advisor, Mr. Dale Ritter.

Middletown was winning until the end of the program, when Deerpark took over the lead. Middletown High School came in second, with Our Lady of Providence coming in last. In addition to the television show, the MHS team participated in a WPFB quiz show that was sponsored by Junior Achievement.

Students Gain Experience From Weekly Radio Show

The field of radio is one of the many activities of the MHS Speech Department. The organization's purpose is to give interested students experience in the actual production of a radio show. Membership is gained by auditioning at WPFB on the announced date.

In cooperation with WPFB, this year's programs were every Sunday night for thirty minutes. Mr. Dale Ritter directed the programs, which were entitled, "Middletown's Rap Session." These programs consisted of student discussions on "Sex Education," with speakers Thomas Webb and Father Holman; "Black Studies," with speakers Pat Ganze and Mrs. Mullgrav; and discussions on the relatively unknown school activities.

Forensic League Promotes MHS Speech Activities

Under the direction of Mr. Dale Ritter, the National Forensic League is an honorary organization for the advancement of better speech. To qualify for membership, one must earn twenty-five points by participating in contests and tournaments. These tournaments consist mainly of individual events. These individual events are original oratory, oratorical declamation, extempt speaking, dramatic and humorous cuttings, and debate.

The Debate team competed in the inter-school tournaments. This year's debate topic was, "Resolved: That the Federal Government should establish, administer, and finance programs to control air and water pollution in the U.S."

NFL officers: Greg Senf, treasurer; Colin Yeary, vice-president; Arthur Marx, president; Anna Banks, secretary; and Jamie Heck, clerk.

The Debate team, under the leadership of Mr. Ott, traveled to surrounding areas to take part in debate tournaments.

The Debate trophy winners: Mike Berry, Jim Harris, Matt Bishop, and Fred Wilkins.

Thespian officers: Jamie Heck, Margie Cox, Colin Yeary, Mr. Butch, Lynne MacFarlane, and Sue Willis.

International Thespians Exhibit Theatrical Skills

Middletown High School's Thespian Troupe 918 is under the guidance of Mr. James Butch. The troupe's purpose, to promote the dramatic arts, is achieved by working on the various school plays. This year the troupe sponsored a children's play, Peter Pan, plus an evening of three one-acts. The Thespians attended the International Thespian Conference at Indiana University last summer. The Thespians also attended the annual district and state conventions. To obtain membership into this organization, one must earn ten points. This is equivilent to one hundred hours of work on the different dramatic productions.

The year was brought to a close by the Masque Awards Presentation, when awards were given for excellence in all areas of Middletown High School's dramatic productions. These awards, comparable to the Oscars, could be voted for only by registered members of Thespian Troupe 918 who had seen all of the performances. The Masque Awards included Best Actor, Best Actress, Best Set Design, and Best Production.

King Goes Against Church In A Man for All Seasons

Last year, on April 24 and 25, 1970, A Man for All Seasons by Robert Bolt was presented in the MHS Theater, directed by Ron Fetzer. Tryouts were open to the entire student body. The setting was during the infamous period of religious upheaval, the sixteenth century. The story told of a man's struggle for the truth with God and his conscience. Henry VIII wanted to divorce his first wife because she could not produce a male heir. Because the Catholic Church forbade divorces, Henry VIII decided to start his own church with himself as the head. The Chancellor of England, Sir Thomas More, gave Henry much resistance. More had to decide whether his allegiance was to the King of England or to his Father in heaven. Finally the Chancellor, believing Henry's request to be against the will of God, went against Henry's decision. Henry VIII pressured More for his approval of the new church and marriage. More still refused to give his permission and was imprisoned. Much time elapsed, and Sir Thomas More became very weak. King Henry threatened to take More's life if he continued to refuse. Sir Thomas More, possessing a strong heart and mind, would rather die than give his approval, and thus he was beheaded.

Courtroom Drama Portrays Excitement And Suspense

Under the direction of Mr. Jim Butch, many Middies presented Agatha Christies's play, Witness for the Prosecution, on October 9 and 10, 1970. This murder mystery surprised many with its unexpected ending. The courtroom drama took place in England during modern times. A German woman, Romaine, entered American and married a young American, Leonard. They came to England to live. A wealthy, elderly woman to whom Leonard had been paying regular friendly visits, was killed. Leonard was accused of killing her for her money, because she had willed all of it to him. He hired a lawyer, Sir Wilfred Robarts, to handle his case. Insisting that he was not guilty, Leonard had everyone believing him, except the jury. So Leonard, who was actually guilty, realized that the odds were against him, so he and his wife devised a plan.

Romaine because of her profound love for Leonard, disguised herself as a tramp and produced false evidence to Sir Wilfred Robarts, pointing to herself as the guilty one. In the courtroom pretending to despise Leonard, she testified against him. The prosecutor's attorney produced the false evidence convicting Romaine. The jury reached the verdict and she was found guilty. Romaine felt pleased with herself for making her husband's plan work. She believed that Leonard would wait for her and after she served the jail sentence, they would be together again. After the trail was over, Romaine saw Leonard in the courtroom with his arms around another woman. Outraged with jealousy and fear, Romaine revenged by killing Leonard, the only one she ever loved.

Attorney Mayhew attempts to convict Romaine of murder.

The murdered woman's faithful housekeeper gives evidence against Leonard Vole, whom she despises for receiving her employer's total estate.

Sound of Music
Enlightens Many Hearts

Rogers and Hamerstein's festive musical, The Sound of Music, was staged in the MHS theater November 21 and 22. Under the direction of Miss Helen Weinberger, the Austrian way of life was protrayed effectively. The musical took place in 1938 in Austria. Maria, a novice nun, was given the job of taking care of Captain Von Trapp's seven children because her conduct in the abby had been put on trial. As their governess, she watched over them day and night, giving them the love that their father was not accustomed to giving them. Discovering that the children had beautiful voices, Maria instructed them in singing, against their father's will. The Captain was a very strict with his children and he lived in the past. After having had many quarrels with Maria, he realized that she was right and that he had to live in the present. He even took up singing again.

Maria, who had always dreamed of being a nun, faced a serious problem. She loved the captain. Returning to the abby, she hoped to forget him, but it did not work Maria realized that she could not run away from her problems. She returned to the Von Trapp's household, finding out that the captain also loved her. With the blessing of the Mother Abbess, they were married, planning to leave the country. But it was too late; the Third Reich was taking over Austria, and Captain Von Trapp was called to serve his country. After singing at the Vienna Music Festival, the Von Trapp family escaped into the hills of Austria, with the aid of Mother Abbess and her convent.

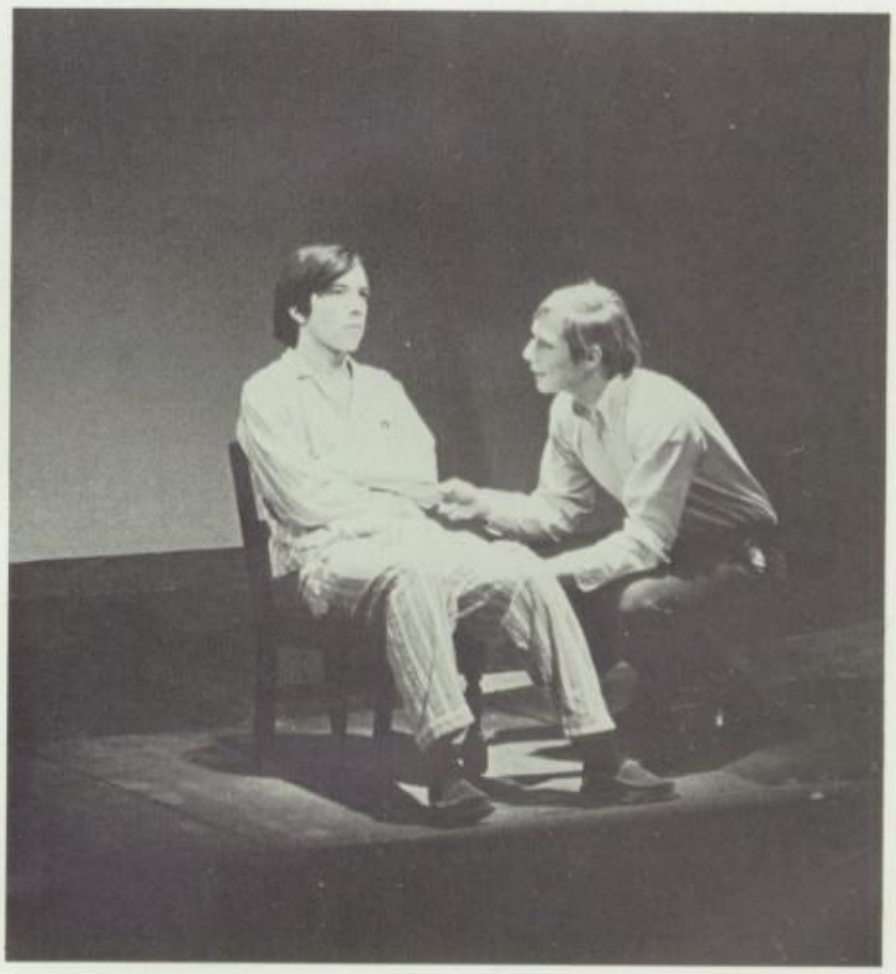
All-black Play a First For Thespian One-acts

Try-outs for the One-acts, traditionally involving only members of Thespians, were open to all MHS students this year. Three one-acts were presented. Directed by Jamie Heck, Bury the Dead was an anti-war play. This dramatic story was about six dead soldiers who refused to be buried. Since no one could talk them into going to their graves, the General ordered a reluctant soldier to shoot and kill the corpses. The Day of Absence, directed by Lynne MacFarlane, was an experiment in all-black theater and was a comical satire on racism. The white people of the town were excited and concerned because all the black people had disappeared. They even went on t.v. and begged the black people to come back. The Negroes did come back the following day. The mystery why they disappeared and why they returned was left for the audience to solve. Sue Willis directed No Why. This tragedy was about a young boy who disobeyed his parents and was being punished. His parents nagged the child to apologize. No one understood the boy; everyone was against him. The child committed suicide.



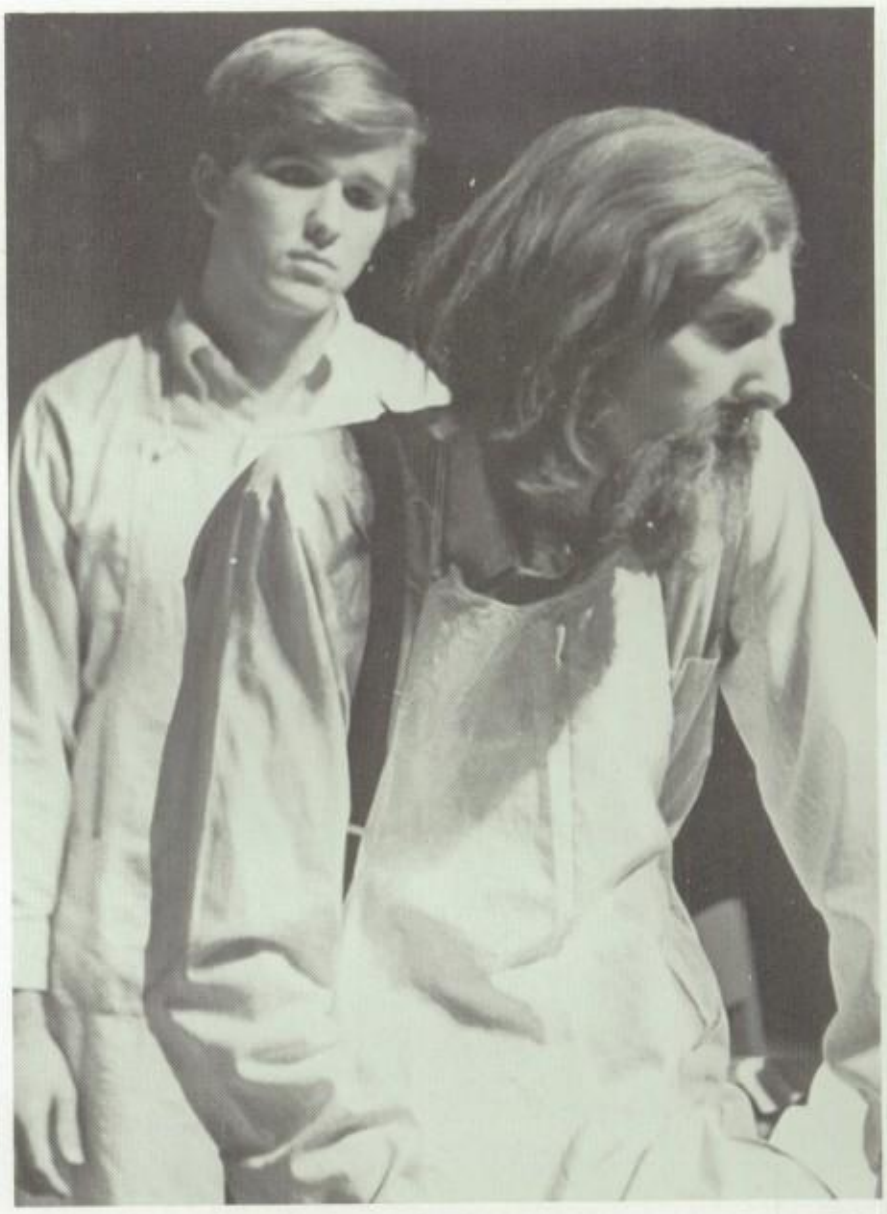
The father tries to convince his son to apologize in No Why.

Family Conflicts Explode

In Look Homeward, Angel

Look Homeward, Angel was staged on January 29 and 30, 1971. The play took place in Altamont, North Carolina in 1916. Eliza Gant was an elderly woman who owned and operated the Dixieland Boarding House and much of the land in the surrounding area. Being business-minded, Eliza placed her boarders' welfare above her family's. Her hen-pecked husband, W.O. Gant, owned a marble yard and shop. His most valuable possession was an incomplete six foot marble statue of an angel. For years he had been trying to portray the inner beauty of the angel, hoping that some day this angel would be the headstone overlooking his grave.

Eliza leads an anguished life. The youngest son, Eugene Gant, was a bright boy who realized he had to leave Altamout and attend college, if he would ever achieve his life's ambition. His mother refused to let him go because she insisted that she needed his help at home. Eugene revolted with the aid of his older brother, Ben, whose life had been ruined by Eliza's selfish love. Ben urged Eugene on, wanting him to have what he had never been able to obtain—freedom. Tragedy upset the Gants' household with the death of Ben Gant. The play ended in despair for Eliza as Eugene finally left for college; and Eliza was left with her boarding house, her world that she alone had developed through selfishness.



Eugene offers compassion to his father in W.O.'s small shop.

While Mrs. Gant's borders relax on the porch after their evening meal, Eugene sits isolated in his own thoughts.

Assemblies Provide Break From Daily Routine

Assemblies throughout the year added zest to student life this year. The annual football pep assembly was the kick-off assembly. In the fall a professional singer, Mr. Charles King, gave a unique performance. He proved his philosophy to the students that music must come from the soul. At the first wrestling assembly, Coach Baumgardner explained the team's wrestling techniques, and the boys demonstrated their exercises and performed a match. Other assemblies included the Homecoming assembly, the two NHS assemblies, the Student-Faculty game, and basketball pep assemblies.

Middie Gym Sets Scene For 1970 Sadie Hawkins

Sadie Hawkins Dance, an annual event in the lives of MHS students, was held in a new location last April. There was a large turnout of hillbilly-like Middies for the first dance at the new high school, which was sponsored by GAA. The atmosphere was that of typical hillbilly life, accented with wall-to-wall straw and with bankboard-to-bankboard beer cans. Buildings such as a barn, a store, a church, and an outhouse also decorated the gym.

Music for the dance was provided by the Jordan Parker Review. Prizes were awarded for the couple with the best costumes and for the best corsage made out of fruits and vegetables. The climax of the dance was the naming of Janet Aldridge as Daisy Mae.

Students Drift Into A Forgotten Legend

The junior class of 1969-70 came through in typical fashion with a fabulous prom for themselves and the seniors. Co-advised by Mr. Joe Klapper and Mrs. Donna Thomas, the theme of the prom was "Atlantis" with the entire Wade E. Miller gym decorated in the fashion of the long lost city of the sea. Entertainment was provided on the sultry night by the East Orange Express and Lee Castle and the Dorsey Orchestra. The highpoint of the night came with the crowning of Chris Cornella and Janis Ireland as king and queen of the 1970 M.H.S. prom. Shortly thereafter the students were invited to the Studio theater to see old "W.C. Fields" and "Laurel and Hardy" comedy films. After the movies the students began the traditional motorcade to the Jubilee at the LeSourdsville Lake. The early morning hours were filled with fun and excitement and ended with a lot of very tired students climbing into their cars. Overall, the prom was a huge success and provided many with some very wonderful and lasting memories.

1970 Graduates Bid MHS Farewell

Graduating procedures began with Recognition Assembly for the seniors. The Yellow Hat Award valued at $340.00 was given to Mark Gardner and Michael Hounchell. Leslie Cox, Brenda McQuinn and Kathy Herald received the Herman H. Lawrence Memorial Award. The Mixed Choir directed by Miss Helen Weinberger provided the music for the Baccalaureate Service. Mr. John E. Dolibois, Vice President of Development and Alumni Affairs of Miami University in Oxford gave the address entitled "CHALLENGE TO YOUTH". The big night finally came with the student processing into the gym with the traditional march of Pomp and Circumstance. The Rev. L. Clair Warden of the United Methodist Church of Columbus gave an inspiring speech on the "TESTED RULES FOR LIVING". Led by Lynn Chaney, salutatorian, and Kathy Herald, valedictorian, the President of the Board of Education, Mr. Howard L. Schueller presented the diplomas. This was followed by the singing of the Alma Mater. These six hundred students of the 1970 senior class were the first to graduate from the new M.H.S.

1970 Football Season Features Seniors

Graduation took a heavy toll of players from the Middie football squad this year. Among those ending their football careers were three seniors who have received three varsity letters in football. They are Tim Hunter, Bob Coleman, and Greg McGuire. Bob Coleman played defensive back and also quarterback in his three years at Middletown. Greg McGuire majored at the offensive and defensive tackle positions during his varsity years. Tim Hunter, voted Middie player of the year, gained 1,000 yards on the ground in his capacity as fullback this year. He also played in the defensive backfield. With these three and many other talented seniors hopes were high for an impressive football season in 1970.

Heartbreaking Defeats Blemish Middie Season

The second half of the season opened with a defeat to Hamilton Taft. The Middies then made a valiant attempt to bring home a win by defeating Lima in a hard hitting contest. This win was followed by a loss to Princeton, and a loss to Hamilton Garfield. On the year the Middies finished respectfully with four wins, five losses, and one tie. In the GMC they ended the season with no wins and four losses. The Middletown Middies will return next year with some new players and will be as tough as ever!

Junior Varsity Football

This year's Junior Varsity gridders were the first to come to high school with the experience of the Freshman High program and proved the program is working. Six sophomores played regularly with the Varsity and made significant contributions. The sophomores showed steady improvement throughout the season even though their record was not too impressive. Despite many first quarter mistakes they were in contention all the way in each game. The big game of the year was against the new Edgewood High School varsity squad. The Middies gave up 14 points in the first five minutes, then held their opponents scoreless for the remainder of the game. Three Middie drives were stopped just short of the goal line before they finally scored in the last two minutes of play. This game showed the fighting spirit and determination that typified the 1970 Junior Varsity team.

The Loneliness Of The Long Distance Runner

Congratulations to the Cross Country team. They have attained the first GMC Championship in the history of Middletown's participation in the league. This was the goal they set in the summer, and with determination, desire, sacrifice and the will to win, the team reached their goal. These young men are unique. No one can imagine what it is like to be a long distance runner until he has experienced it. The way the team met the challenge from Princeton after surprising them in the first GMC meet is something of which to be proud. When they won, they won as a team. Through their achievements, the participants have learned that the team, in the end, must come before individual performance.

The 1970 boys' tennis team finished with a very impressive 14-2 season record. The Middie netters beat Hamilton Taft in a playoff for the G.M.C. title and finished with an 8-1 record in taking the league. The boys swept the district tournament with P.D. Ballard winning the singles and Mike Terry and Gerry Williams teaming up to win the doubles. Ballard went undefeated playing first singles, giving him a 36-2 record for his three years as a Middie racketeer. The 1970 girls' tennis team, coached by Miss Hamilton, had a very successful year. New Squad Brings New Spirit And Enthusiasm

This year something new has been added to the cheering section of MHS. Along with the varsity squad who cheers at varsity football and basketball games, and the junior varsity who cheers at junior varsity basketball games, a new squad has been formed. This squad has been called the wrestling squad. They also cheer for swimming and baseball games. These three groups of cheerleaders work hard to bring the "Middie Magic", spirit and enthusiasm to MHS. This year's varsity cheerleaders went to camp last June, where they won many honors. They also won the "Spark Plug" award which is presented to the squad with the best spirit. With the help of Miss Sue Moizuk, their advisor, the cheerleaders have encouraged respect and spirit at MHS.

The United Nations

Swanettes, directed by Miss Susan Moizuk, is the synchronized swimming group at Middletown High School. The tryouts are held in the fall, with girls in all area high schools eligible. The girls chosen practice every week at the Y.M.C.A. to learn the various stunts needed for the group activities. This year as in the past, the organization puts on two performances. The first was "A Tribute to the United Nations." This was held in Mid-December. The spring program will be worked around the theme "Sports."

Volleyball Team Completes Second Season

The second Middletown High volleyball season was successful. The coach was Miss Joyce Smith who feels much was learned, not only by the members of the teams, but also by herself. New situations are sometimes hard to adjust to but the coach feels everyone adjusted well. The spirit of the teams and the attitude of each player was good through out the entire season. Each player accepted the challenges that confronted her. Desire was good, ambition was evident, and hard work was the order of the day.

Middies Complete A Successful 1970-71 Basketball Season

The Middies opened the 1971 season impressively by winning nine of their first ten games. The only defeat was encountered as the Middies traveled to Kentucky to play Covington Catholic. The Middies averaged 82 points per game while holding their opponents to an average of 70 for the first ten games.

The team was lead by Captain Eddie Gibbons, with returning seniors, Jim Ratliff and Ben Cole. It looked as though the Middies were going to take the GMC. This dream was soon shattered as the Middies suffered a heart-breaking defeat at the hands of Princeton. The Middies won five of their last seven. The losses were to Taft and Princeton. The season was successful with the Middies taking a 14-4 record into the district tournament and being seeded fourth.

Season Opens With A Victory; Middies Go 6-0

The Middies opened their 1970-71 basketball season with Franklin. They outscored the Wildcats, 78-49, and brought home their first of fourteen victories of the year.

In the second game of the season, the Middies traveled to Lima to play the Spartans on their home court. The Middies returned home victorious.

The game with Wilmington was the opener on the Middies' home court. The enthusiastic crowd watched the Middies score their third victory of the season.

In their first GMC game of the season the Middies were victorious against Hamilton Garfield.

The Middies next opponent was a very strong Richmond Indiana team. The hard fought battle brought the Middies their fifth victory in a row.

In their sixth encounter of the season, the Walkermen faced the Fairfield Indians at Fairfield. The Middies were again victorious and their record was 6-0.

Middies Conquer Four More Foes

The first defeat of the year for the Middies was against Covington Catholic. Middie mistakes led to this initial defeat. The Middies returned home for the next game to score a very impressive victory over Cincinnati Taft. The following week the Middie Cagers traveled north to Miamisburg. The Middies scored an exciting victory over the Vikings. In their third GMC game of the year, the Middies pulled out a slim victory over the Taft Tigers. This important victory was sparked by the scoring efforts of Ben Cole.

The Middies' second defeat was also the first Middletown defeat in the gym at the new high school. The Princeton Vikings took initial control at the game that ended in a Middletown defeat. The Middies returned to their winning ways and defeated Springfield. The Wildcats were tough competition, but the Middies ended on top.

Middies Complete Season With a 14-4 Record

Dayton Jefferson posed the next obstical for the Middies. The Middies ran up the score and defeated the highly ranked Class AA team 101-86. The next encounter for the Middies was a league game with Garfield. The Middies were again victorious and boasted a 12-2 record. February opened with another league contest with Fairfield on the Middies home court. The Middies were led by the scoring efforts of Eddie Gibbons and Jim Ratliff with 20 and 19 respectively.

The Taft Tigers invaded Middletown and left with a victory over the Middies. The Middies cut the Tigers' lead to three at half time, but the Middies lost their momentum and lost their third game of the season. The Walkermen traveled to Princeton to meet the Vikings on their home court. The Middies suffered the fourth defeat of the year and the second at the hands of the Vikings.

In the final game of the season the Middies were victorious over Lima. The Middies finished the regular season with a 14-4 record.

Impressive Victories Take Middies To District Finals

The Middletown Middies advanced to the semifinals of the Oxford "AAA" District tournament in two exciting come-from-behind victories. The Middies became Sectional Champions after defeating the Garfield Griffins 83-67, and the Lebanon Warriors 73-67. Middletown became one of the four Sectional Champions and was presented a trophy following the game against Lebanon. This is the first time in the history of the Oxford tournament that this has been done.

The victory over Princeton proved to be the best game of the tournament. The Middies' pressing defense forced the game into a 67-67 tie. Captain Ed Gibbons had a chance to end the game in regulation play but barely missed a 15-footer at the buzzer. Jim Ratliff of the Middies was high scorer with 30 points. The Middies had reached the finals with the Princeton victory but it was not an easy task.

This brought the year's record to 17-5. Once again this was far beyond what was expected of the 1970-71 Middies. Coach Walker now has 596 career victories, four short of his goal of 600.

In the finals the Middies faced a very strong Taft team. The Middies fought back from a 17-point deficit to pull within two points in the closing minute. Taft controlled the ball and put in the final basket to win the game 68-64. This was the second time in the history of the tourney that Taft has beaten the Middies in the finals to take home a trophy. Congratulations to the team and to Coach Walker for a very fine season.

Matmen Post Best Record In Middletown History

The 1970-1971 Middletown Wrestling team completed the season with the best record in Middletown history. The matmen finished two seasons with a 7-1 record for their dual meets. Much of the credit for the team's success goes to the coaches, Gary Baumgartner and Bob Neumeier. The individual records prove that the Middie Matmen are learning more and developing a pride that will carry this sport to even higher recognition in the years to come. The Middies took a first place victory in the first annual Middletown Invitational Meet. Six Middies took individual championships in their weight classes. The matmen finished third in the GMC. This was their best finish in this event.

Two Middletown seniors earned the right to advance to the District wrestling meet. These two Middies, Bob Egelston and Roscoe Ronto, sparked the Middies to a successful season in their third year as wrestlers. We congratulate the Middie Matmen for their successful season.

Gymnastics Is A Different Kind Of Sport

Gymnastics, now four years old, continues to grow in popularity at MHS. The team this year, under the guidance of Coach Jim Davis, has made the Middletown tumblers a threat to area teams. This year's season closed with a record of 1-2-0. Main Middie point-getters were three-year veterans Bob Housh and Steve Martin, both all-around men, and Sophomore Jim Hunter, who showed his skill in tumbling and floor exercise. The team as a whole, made an impressive and promising showing this year and should have a victorious season next year. Besides regular meets, the Middies showed three skills at the Taft Invitational and the State Regionals.

Tanker's Season Shocking

During the past year the Middies "Tankers" displayed fine talent, sportsmanship, and courage. With only fourteen swimmers the team faced squads with as high as sixty members and sometimes won. This year the team received new warm-up suits which are purple with white trim and a large white block M on the left side of the jacket. The swimming team was thought not to have had a good team this year. The record surprised everyone, except Mr. James Dillon, who predicted our winning season. Although the team had three meets canceled they still wound up with a 7-5 record. Bill Wooley and Steve Hornback have each set school records this year. Bill Wooley set one in the 100 yard Butterfly and Steve Hornback in the 200 yard Individual Medley. On February 12 the team traveled to Oxford for the Sectionals. The Middies came in third behind Princeton and Springfield North. Going to the districts February 20 were Bill Wooley and Steve Hornback with the 100 yard Butterfly, Kevin Hinkle with the Backstroke, and the 40 yard Freestyle Relay consisting of Pat Dillon, Jim Wetzel, Tom Long, and Steve Hornback.

New Coach Leads Middiettes

The Middiettes, coached by Miss Rita Nordenbrock, completed the season with their only two victories from Franklin and Hamilton Garfield. Miss Nordenbrock replaced Miss Janet Hamilton, who had coached for seven consecutive years at Middletown High School. Co-captains were Sylvia Rogers and Diana Weathers. The Varsity consisted of only three seniors: Vivian Torbert, Sylvia Rogers, and Diana Weathers, who have played three years of Varsity Basketball.

The Junior Varsity record in the GMC was 3-1, losing only to Hamilton Garfield by one point. The Middiettes broke their scoring record with the amount of 52-17 over Franklin. The Middiettes always play six-man, according to a GMC regulation but they experimented with five-man against Lebanon. Next year, all GMC girls' basketball teams should be participating in five-man basketball.

Middies Capture GMC For Third Year In A Row

The 1970 Middie trackmen opened the season with a victory in their only duel meet of the year. The team was sparked to a very successful season by seniors, Jeff Gann, Gary Ligget, Ted Gregory, Derrick Perrin, Jack South, and Steve Pearson. Juniors John Whiteside, Ezra Heard, Mike Cole, and Otis Turner also played an important role in the team's success.

Monroe High hosted the V.F.W. Relays on April 24-25 and the Middies won first place. In the meet Gary Ligget tied a school record with a 10.0 clocking in the one hundred yard dash. April 28-29 took the Middies to Fairfield for the league meet and when the dust had cleared the Middies had won their third consecutive GMC Championship.

The Middies fell two points short in their attempt to capture the district title. It was not a total defeat because five individual Middies, the 880 relay team and mile relay team qualified to compete in the regional meet. Jeff Gann was the only Middie to make it through the regionals in Dayton and finished his career as a Middie with a fourth place finish in the State in the long jump.

New Principal, Superintendent And Ideas Join The Middletown School System

Dr. Robert Johnson has taken the job as the new superintendent of the Middletown Public Schools and Mr. Lewis Hill is the new principal of Middletown High School. These men are just a few of the changes that have taken place for this school year. Many other innovations have occurred at Middletown High. Besides having a new principal, there are four assistant principals, a Director of Student Affairs for both boys and girls, and a Director of the Institute of Better Learning. Other ideas include the conversion of the library to the Media Center, team teaching in American History, and independent study classes which can be taken in place of Senior English. These are the major changes that have occurred including the fact that there have been many new teachers to come to M.H.S. All these changes and ideas are helping M.H.S. to become one of the finer schools.

New Administrative Team And Staff Help The School

Middletown High has nine excellent secretaries. They keep the records straight, handle correspondence, and help the students and parents with problems. Mrs. Shepherd is our newest secretary. Mrs. Jurkowitz has retired after 11½ years of service. We may also be proud of our assistant principals. Mr. Lewis handles the athletic business and takes over in case of Mr. Hill's absence. Mr. Kramer helps the seniors with their problems and runs the counseling department. Mr. Miller deals with the juniors and their problems, curriculm and instruction, and places student teachers. Mr. Young helps sophomores and deals in Human Relations.

The Middletown High School Guidance and Counseling Department underwent a major change last September with the employment of three additional counselors. This increased the counseling staff to seven who work under the supervision of Assistant Principal Robert Kramer. Bruce Atwater, Majorie Benjamin, and Willa Crone are counselors for the senior class. June Owens and Bill Neumeier counsel the juniors, while Marie McClellan and Jim Davis serve the sophomores. Mr. Atwater also heads the EMR program.

Media Center Replaces Library

The Media Center is a resource facility where an individual can find information in the printed or non-printed form and can produce materials needed for classroom use. The center provides ample space for study and research and also schedules the use of audio-visual equipment within the school. This year the Media Center is equipped with cassette tapes, AV, and film strips for the students' use. The resource consultants are Mrs. Wynonia Carey and Mr. Guy Popplewell, with Mrs. Maria Pendergrass serving as clerical assistant. The Media Center secretary is Mrs. Edith Nemcic. In essence, the Media Center is an extension of the classroom and its function is to assist teachers and students in the process of learning.

Business Courses Promote Training For Future Jobs

The Commercial Department under the direction of Mr. Enright offers to students both academic and practical experience in the business field. This particular field stresses the importance of helping students to develop, understand, and appreciate the part played by business and industry in supplying the needs of the people. In order for the students to see the real business world, it provides part time employment to those who are available and who choose to enter a particular occupation upon graduation. Courses offered in this department are accounting, business English, business law, merchandising, office practice, salesmanship, shorthand, and typing. Courses in notehand and personal typing are provided for college-bound students. This department also sponsors two clubs: Future Secretaries of America and National Business Honor Society.

English Aids In Understanding And Communication

The goal of the English Department is to provide for the understanding and appreciation of the many facets of the English Language. The study of literature is of prime significance in English. Sophomores work with a composite of literary types; juniors study American literature; and seniors deal with English literature. Also of great importance is the study of grammar and creative writing. World literature and creative writing is a course offered in which seniors concentrate on foreign literature and are given more extensive writing practices. Independent studies, under the direction of Mrs. Carey and Mrs. Hash was added this year. In this independent study course, students met in the Media Center where they were given maximum freedom in pursuing their individual interests. In addition, a discussion group in the Great Books was offered in a program sponsored by Mrs. McLachlan, Mrs. Senf, and Mrs. Crawford. In this group, the students and teachers met every two weeks to discuss in depth some of the shorter classics.

Fine Arts Expand Skill And Knowledge

Creativity, drawing, and painting are some of the many abilities students strive to improve through the Art Department. Art is one of the many opportunities which a student can express himself. This year ceramics and sculpturing are offered to interested students. MHS entered the car painting contest in which art students from area schools participated in a three day painting marathon. Middletown High School came in as 1st runner up.

The Music Department is mostly concerned with students gaining skill, knowledge, and appreciation of the many aspects of music. In band and orchestra, students practice daily to improve their talents. The academic portion of the Music Department consists of the course, theory and harmony. In both departments, students strive to improve their talents and gain some self-satifaction.

Food Preparation And Home Economics Improve Domestic Skills

Skills in the kitchen can be mastered in the food preparation and home economics course. The food preparation course gives students the chance to learn how to prepare for a large number of people by actual experience and training on the job. The students are given the last line in the cafeteria to organize and prepare for fellow classmates at MHS.

The Home Economics department familiarizes a girl with the basic skills needed to become a homemaker. In the course such areas are covered as food, clothing, family relations, home management, and home nursing. Many of these aspects of homemaking are overlooked but often prove to be useful in the future lives of young people.

Industrial Arts Put Skills to Use

The Industrial Arts Program concerns itself with teaching students skills which may be used in future careers. Much of the knowledge gained can be put to practical use in the home. The courses offered at M.H.S. are wood shop, drafting, photography, home repair, tool use, and machine shop. The curriculum offers experience in a variety of fields which helps promote the skills in occupational jobs for the future.

Language And Speech Promote Cultural Understanding

The goal of the Foreign Language Department is to provide a foundation for the ability to communicate in another tongue. Four years of instruction are offered in French, German, Latin, and Spanish. Students began their study in a foreign language with elementary conversation and intense repetition and drills, gradually progressing to writing and reading. Material on various aspects of culture increases the total value of the course studied. The students began to realize the importance of communicating in another language at a time when another continent is but hours away.

In speech, students began the year with public speaking, a part of their oral communication. As the years progresses, students try to improve their poise, style, and delivery. In addition to impromtu speeches, addresses are given to convince, persuade, and stimulate fellow classmates. Speech students learn to interpret poetic, descriptive, oratorical, dramatic and humorous declamations.

Mathematical Skill Expands Learning

The mathematical courses at M.H.S. prepare a student for entrance to a vocation or for college. College-preparatory students begin in their freshman year with Algebra I, progressing to geometry and Algebra II. Seniors either study trigonometry and advanced algebra, or advanced mathematics in preparation for calculus, the "indispensable discipline." the computer, a knowledge in mathematics can prove to be important and essential, This year the Mathematics Department is characterized by several new teachers, some of whom teach only a half-day. This year has also brought the appointment of Mrs. Louise McBain as the new department head.

Physical Education Leads To A Healthy Outlook

The Physical Education department at MHS plays an important role in the schooling of every student. It provides the student with the chance to get away from his classwork and enjoy physical activities. Various sports are introduced throughout the year. Among these are football, basketball, gymnastics, wrestling and golf for the boys. The girls sports include soccer, hockey, tennis, and volleyball. Physical education, required through eleventh grade, helps build attitudes in health and cleanliness.

Science Deals With Many Interests

The science department offers courses of study which will provide a wide range of preparation for students at MHS. College preparatory courses in biology, botany, Chemistry I and II, Physics I and II, and zoology are provided with very complete facilities and supplies. More general courses of practical science, physiology and health are available for the student who wants or needs only a more limited understanding of science.

Study Of The Past Shows Steps To Civilization

To find an understanding and appreciation of the present world situation, a basic knowledge of man's progress through the past, how men govern themselves, and how men make a living, are situations introduced to a social studies student. The importance of such basic knowledge lies in the hands of the Social Studies Department. A few of the more important facets constitute the department's minimum course requirements. American history is required of all juniors, as American government and economics is of seniors. World history is a popular college-preparatory course, which traces the development of major cultures in a concise manner. There have been new changes in the Social Studies Department. The team-teaching concept was introduced in American history classes. Under Mr. Hoskins, Mr. Klapper, and Mr. Rupp, two classes of approximately sixty students each have the advantages of various resourse material and can draw from the wealth of three teachers. Also for the first time, a course in African studies was offered under the direction of Mrs. Mullgrav.

Vocational Students Prepare For A Career

Preparing and training the student for an occupation upon graduation from high school is the purpose of the Vocational Department. This department offers a wide area of courses to be studied including engineering, machine shop, automotive shop, food preparation, cosmetology, and dental assistance. The students involved in the Vocational Department are studying the vocation best suited to his abilities. Upon graduation the student may continue his vocational training or he may enter into a career of his own.

DECA Provides Job Training For Members

High school students are offered on-the-job training in various business fields in the Distributive Education Clubs of America. These students attend morning classes and then spend the afternoon working in these various business fields. Local business firms provides the jobs for these students. This program is a national and state wide organization. The club at Middletown High School is advised by Mr. McCall.

VICA Members Develop Vocational Skills

To develop citizenship and leadership among students in the vocational and industrial programs is the purpose of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. Its major goals are: safety, good public relations, teacher recruitment, and youth cooperation. State programs and national conventions are offered to the members, including a summer intern program in Washington VICA also competes at local, state, and national levels.

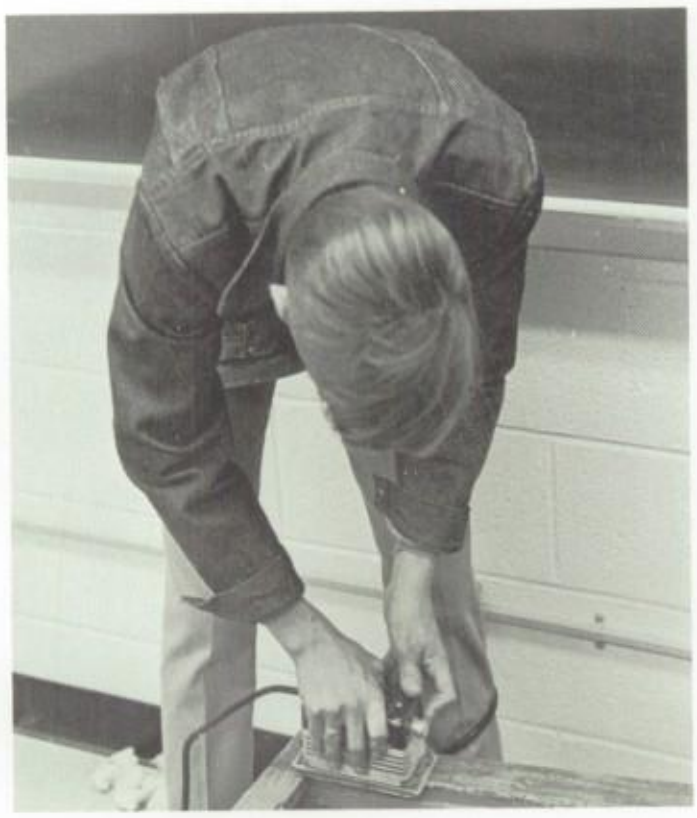
OWE Gives Students Work Experience

OWE, an unskilled vocational program, provides the student a start in the world of work. Students in OWE attend self-contained classes for one half of the day. The remaining half is spent at a specific job in restaurants, gas stations, supermarkets, department stores, and the hospital. Student wages are conducted per hour. The coordinators give students the background of types of jobs available to them. They also teach practical curriculum such as tax preparation, check bookkeeping, budgeting, and family problems. The coordinators also find job placement for students and visit them frequently during working times. The senior class coordinators are Mr. Julian and Mr. Girimont. Mr. Hadley is the junior coordinator and Mr. Bolton is the sophomore coordinator.

A student looks on as the sparks fly.



The standing process is put to use by a student.

COE Prepares Students For The Business World

Co-operative Office Education is a business course which prepares students for the commercial world. Classes are held every morning for one hour for students of various schools. Then in the afternoon students practice office skills with an on-the-job training at local businesses and industries. This program is under the direction of Miss Thelma Masters and is affiliated with state and national organizations. Members sponsor bake sales, candy sales, and sponsor car washes to raise money for the Annual Employer Appreciation Banquet that is held each spring.

Filing in the office is done by Brenda McClure.

COE officers: Linda Hughley, Mary Jo Tunnell, Jacky Hawkins, Pam Jeffery, Connie Bashaw.

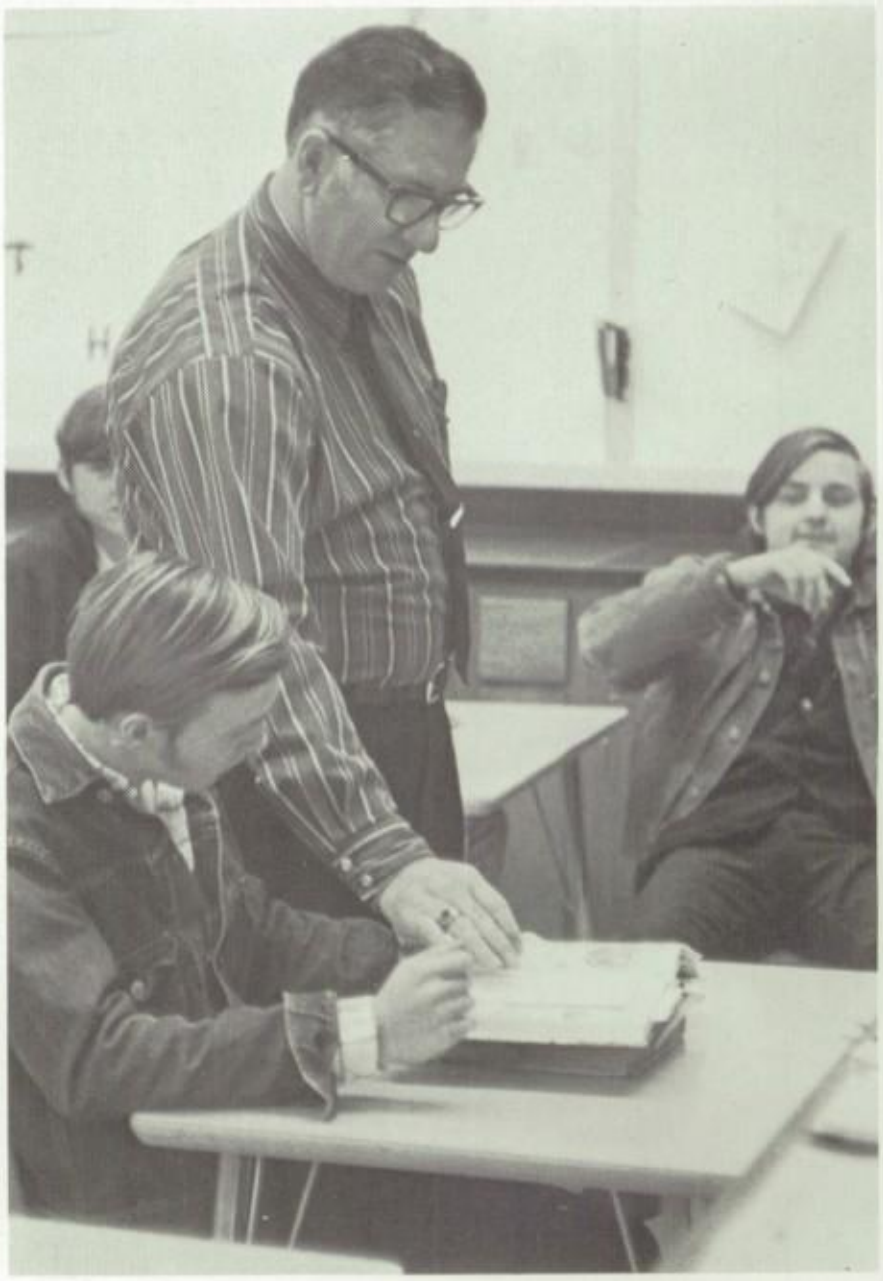
Courses Are Geared To Individuals

M.H.S. offers a well equipped Special Education Department for students that are slower learners. It consists mainly of job preparatory courses such as food preparation, typing, home economics, and shop and is for helping students go directly into vocations after graduation. These classes are small enough to insure individual attention and assistance. Tutoral programs are also available for those students needing further help.



A students asks Mr. Wingate for assistance in solving a problem.

"What thought the radiance which was once so bright
Be now forever taken from my sight,
Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass, of glory in the flower;
We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what remains behind . . . . .
Thanks to the human heart by which we live,
Thanks to its tenderness, its joys, and fears,
To me the meanest flower that blows can give Thoughts that do often lie too deep for tears."

We the people of the 1970-1971 Optimist staff have captured this year in a book of pictures and writing. You the people must add the life, the feeling, and the stirring of your memory. Look back upon this school year as a great one of association with people who made it so.

Along with the hardworking hours and tense moments, there were also many happy and fun times in our "Purple Pit".

Without the guidance, patience, help, and renewing encouragement from our adviser, Mr. Kendall Craft, we would never have been able to present to you, the student body, this book.

We wish to express thanks to Osborne Studios for their prompt and excellent service and a special thanks goes to Mr. Mac Tobias for his outstanding photography job in sports and activities.

Yet after brick and steel and stone are gone,
And flesh and blood are dust,
the dream lives on.

Mike,
a really tuff guy I'm glad to know.
Have a cool
summer & maybe I'll see you and Sherry around
some time. Luck always,

Linda

Mike,
Even a short time I've known you you've been a good friend &
I wish you much luck & more
for more years

Mike,
We never forget all the fun I had Reading
Great. I
Cincinnati
Ever now
